Government of India,
Department of Education.
(Education).

Calcutta, the 16th March 1912.

From

The Hon'ble Mr. H. Sharp, C.I.E.,

Joint Secretary to the Government of India,

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Education Department.

Sir,

I am directed to forward a copy of the questions which the Hon'ble Mr. Bhurgri proposes to ask at the Imperial Legislative Council regarding the inspection of schools for Muhammadans.

2. The Government of India will be glad to be furnished with answers to the questions so far as the Madras presidency ---- is concerned in order that the information required may be compiled and supplied to the Hon'ble Mr. Bhurgri. It is suggested that question (b) be answered whether the reply to

(a) is in the negative or the affirmative.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

[Signature]

Joint Secretary to the Government of India.

NOTE FILE.

C.No.886, from the Govt. of India, No.658, dated 19-3-1912.

Subject.

Inspection of Muhammadan schools.

p.2 of q.

Clause (a) of the Question

There are no Muhammadan deputy inspectors of schools in this Presidency but there are sub-assistant inspectors of Muhammadan schools who evidently correspond to the deputy inspectors of Muhammadan schools in ~~the~~ other Presidencies. There are at present four such sub-assistants in this Presidency, excluding those in charge of Mappilla schools, who are three in number.

Para 31 of the Public Instruction report for 1906-07- vol I

p.2 of q.

Clause (b) of the Question

2. The Government are maintaining 58 special schools for Muhammadans in this Presidency - vide statement (115) on page 155 of volume II of the Public Instruction Report for 1910-11. Of these, one is a secondary school, namely, the Government Madrasa-i-Azam; three are training schools, vizt. the Government Muhammadan training school, Madras, the Hobart Muhammadan training school for mistresses^{Madras} and the Government training school for Muhammadan women, Guntur; and the rest are elementary schools.

p.2 of q.

Clause (c) of the Question

3. The duties of the inspecting agency as laid down in the Grant-in-Aid Code are

(i) to inspect all Muhammadan elementary schools in their range,

(ii) to select Muhammadan elementary schools for aid in the Presidency (Article 18 of the Grant-in-Aid Code),

(iii) to prepare bills for the payment of grants to the Muhammadan elementary schools admitted to aid (Article 22 of the Grant-in-Aid Code), and

(iv) to conduct all correspondence in regard to Government Muhammadan elementary schools under their control.

They also sometimes aid the circle inspector in the inspection of Muhammadan secondary schools.

4. No information is available in the Secretariat as to the number of Muhammadan schools under the charge of each Muhammadan sub-assistant inspector, but it has been ascertained from the Director of Public Instruction's office that there are 149 Muhammadan schools in the Rajahmundry range, 220 in the Bellary range, 536 in the Madras range and 507 in the Trichinopoly range.

5. The following draft answer is submitted for approval:--

"(a) There are special Muhammadan inspecting officers in the Madras Presidency and ^{known as} they are styled sub-assistant inspectors of Muhammadan schools."

"(b) The Madras Government maintain 58 schools specially intended for Muhammadans."

"(c) There are four sub-assistant inspectors for Muhammadan schools in Madras, ^{three who are in the west coast &c} including these in charge of Mappilla schools ^{who number three}. Their work lies almost entirely in the supervision of
