Through

The District Judge,

The humble application of M. Nagabhushanam 8th Clerk of the District Munsif's Court of Ellore Kistna District.

Most Honoured Sir,

I humbly beg to submit that I studied up to the Matriculation class and appeared for the examination in 1903 Owing to serious illness during the last term of the year I -- could not secure a pass that year, and my attempt to prepare -- for the next year had also to be given up on account of a re-- lapse. I had afterwards to stop my studies as I was so advised by medical men. As my circumstances were very poor and owing to the death of my father, I had to seek for an employment.

Fortunately I was entertained as Amin in the District Munsif's Court of Ellore and I have since risen to the position of the on Rs 20 p.m. 8th clerk. I have put in nearly 7 years service and I have done all branches of work in this Court and I am conversant with all its details.

In February 1909 I have applied for exemption to appear for the departmental tests and although the District Munsif and District Judge were pleased to recommend me the High Court was not pleased to send up my application then. Unless

I am exempted I shall never be able to get more pay and shall have to remain for ever in Rs 20/- The number of Courts in this District have been increased and there are greater chances of promotion for qualified men in the Department. I shall not be able to share in the benefit as I cannot become qualified unless exempted. I also enclose a copy of the testimonials for perusal.

I therefore humbly pray that the Government may be pleased to consider my poor case and exempt me from the Matriculation Examination so that I may appear for the departmental tests.

I beg to remain,

Most Honoured Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. Hajj Abdul Hamid

Copy of letter from the District Judge, Kistna, to the Registrar, High Court, Madras, Dis.No.1453 dated 9th March 1912.

I have the honour to forward herewith an application addressed to Government by M.Nagabhushanam, a clerk of the District Munsif's Court of Ellore praying that he may be exempted from the operation of the rules prescribing qualifications for appearing for Special Test Examinations so that he can appear for the Departmental Tests.

This Court once recommended the applicant to the High Court in the year 1909 when it declined to recommend him to Government (Vide Proceedings Dis.No.337 dated 10th March 1909). There are no special grounds for recommendation except that his work has continued to be good. One who knows his work thoroughly is better than the raw men available who have got only the School Leaving Certificate. If the applicant passes the Tests required, he would be quit competent to do any work he may be entrusted with.
