In his speech at the meeting of the Legislative Council held on the 13th March 1912 on the subject of expending the coronation grant of 8 lakhs, the Hon'ble Sir Murray Hammick observed that, among other things, it was also proposed to increase the number of Sub-Assistant Inspectors and supervisors to provide for the inspection of the additional elementary schools to be opened. The Hon'ble Member did not say what the increase is likely to be ~~on~~ that the increase would be in the ~~next~~ next official year; but only enumerated the objects on which the grant would be expended. The main purpose of the speech was to ^{show the} ~~disprove~~ ~~necessity of appointing~~ ~~general committee.~~ ~~the necessity for a committee.~~

B 2. The Hon'ble Member's remarks were apparently based on para 14 of letter No. 853 Edl., dated 2nd December 1911, where it was stated that some 100 extra sub-assistant inspectors and 200 supervisors would be required for the inspection of the additional elementary schools to be opened during the next five years. But it will be observed that ~~the~~ these appointments are to be made only gradually in the course of the next five years in proportion to the number of additional schools opened. In the provisional programme drawn up by this Govt. no specific mention has been made as to the number of new Muhammadan schools to be opened. That will be known only when the proposals come to be actually worked out. Until this is ascertained the increase in the strength of the Muhammadan inspecting agency cannot be determined. There will, in any case, be an increase in the number of Muhammadan sub-assistants and supervisors - vide para 5 of the the D.P.I.'s letter on page 10 of G.O. No. 852 Edl., dated 2nd December 1911. The D.P.I. has been requested to submit proposals for the utilization of the recurring grant of 5.53 lakhs sanctioned by the Govt. of India in aid of elementary education for boys and he is just starting the investigations.

3. The following answer is suggested:-

"The increase in the number of supervisors and sub-assistant inspector of schools will depend upon the number of additional institutions to be created in regard to which detailed investigations have just been started. It is ~~highly~~ probable that there will be an appreciable addition to the number of Muhammadan elementary schools and consequently to the strength of the inspecting staff. The exact extent of such addition cannot be gauged at present!"

I shd. prefer to say:-

The ^{special} case of Muhammadan schools will ~~be~~ be considered by the D.P.I. when he is engaged in framing his proposals for ^{the} addition to the inspecting staff, which Sir Murray Hamrick referred as one essential item in the programme yet to be drawn up for the utilization of the ~~the~~ Imperial grant for the expansion of ~~primary~~ elementary education D

D.P.I. no

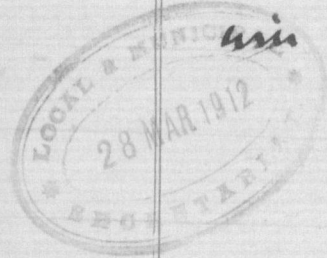

"if so" The question is intelligible with its
and "if not"
An increase in the number of Supervisors and Sub-assistant Inspectors is not intended to benefit any class of officers but depends upon the ^{number} nature of the schools that require inspection

The number of additional Sub-assistant inspectors and Supervisors that will be necessary is not yet known Some immediate increase in the number is desirable - I am submitting proposals in a few days - the further increase depends upon the number of schools to be opened in the future
The needs of schools intended for Muhammadans will naturally be considered

The question and answer as finally settled are as follows: -

Question 47. (a) With reference to the statement of the Hon'ble Sir Murray Hammick at the meeting of the Council held on the 13th instant in regard to an increase during the next official year in the number of supervisors and sub-assistant inspectors of schools, will Government be pleased to state whether such increase is intended to benefit these classes of officers appertaining to Muhammadan schools also?

Muhammadan supervisors and sub-assistant inspectors of schools.

(b) If so, the total number of supervisors and sub-assistant inspectors to be added to the existing number?

(c) If not, will Government be pleased to take into consideration the desirability of doing so in connection with a general increase in these classes of officers?

Answer 47—

The special case of Muhammadan schools will be considered by the Director of Public Instruction, when he is engaged in framing his proposals for the additions to the inspecting staff to which Sir Murray Hammick referred as one essential item in the programme yet to be drawn up for the utilization of the Imperial grant for the expansion of elementary education.

The question and answer may be communicated to the D.P.I. The draft below is for approval.
