2. V.Jagadisawara Mudaliyar, Tahsildar on Rs. 225 acting in the North Arcot District:

Age:45; service:23½ years, magisterial experience: Has exercised 3rd and 2nd class powers for about 2 years and 10 months. He is a Matriculate and has passed only the lower grade in the Criminal and Revenue tests. Knows Tamil & Telugu.

In 1909 Mr.Rice said he was reliable as an office man, but not brilliant or original and that he did pretty well as a Tahsildar. Mr.Brodie has written recently in April 1911 that he is "a thoroughly honest, steady, trustworthy man, conscientious to a degree and although slow, everything he does he does well". Mr.Marjoribanks considers him fit for promotion and states that he has good organising power and the knack of getting work out of subordinates.

The Board recommends that he may be exempted from the Revenue and Criminal tests in the Higher grade and given a trial as a Dy.Collr. For orders whether the recommendation may be accepted.

The recommendation may, I submit, be accepted. It is essential, I think, to maintain a fair proportion of non-Brahmans in the Dy.Collrs' list, and the examination rules may be relaxed with

May be put on the list as a dernier ressort, only to be appointed if no one else can be found.

To take Venkanna

Pantulu's place in Kurnool no Dy.Collr.is immediately available. It is therefore submitted that a Telugu knowing officer may be taken from the selected list and appointed as an acting Dy.Collr.for Kurnool. The only Telugu knowing man in the original and supplemental lists (excepting A.Ramachandra Aiyar who is on long leave) still available for appointment is V.Jagadiswara Mudaliyar, Tahsildar in the North Arcot district. He is well spoken of by his Collectors, but as he is only a matriculate who has to be exempted from Revenue and Criminal Highers, he was put into the selected list only to be appointed if no one could be found. As this contingency has arisen it is submitted that he may be exempted from the two special tests and appointed Ag.Dy.Collr.and posted to general duty, Kurnool vice J.Venkanna Pantulu. If this is approved, Educational may be requested separately to grant the necessary exemption to Jagadiswara Mudaliyar.
