The latest rules for the Text-Book Committee available are those printed in Gons. 369 Ed. d. 27th.

A. June 1910. It does not appear from those rules that authors or publishers are required to pay any fee when submitting books to the S.P.D. or the Text-Book Committee.

B. 2. In Gons. 270 Ed. d. 8th April 1908 the power to frame rules for the guidance of the Text-Book Committee has been delegated to the S.P.D. It is not known whether the S.P.D. has framed any rule regarding the payment of fees in the manner referred to in India's telegram. He may be requested w.o. to furnish the information asked for by the Govt. of India.

There is no rule prescribing the payment of any fee under any circumstances.

Copies of the books are demanded, - I think 3 copies - as 3 people usually examine each book - I think there have been cases where these even have been returned if so desired - I should return them if requested to do so
