The Hon'ble Mt. W.O. Horne,
Commissioner of Land Revenue and Forests.

Reference

In their Order Mis No. 412 Educational dated 13th July 1909 the Government permanently exempted C. Balakrishnamachari from the Account test, Higher grade, for employment as Head Clerk of the District Forest Office, Ganjam. It was since found necessary in the public interests to interchange the Head Clerks of the Kistna and Ganjam District Forest Offices, and C. Balakrishnamachari was accordingly posted to Kistna as Head Clerk in February 1911. The status of the Ganjam District Forest Office has been recently raised in G.O. No. 741 Revenue dated ¹³18th March 1912 and the Conservator reports that Balakrishnamachari is not fit to be the Head clerk of that office, but that he may suitably be employed in Kistna. In these circumstances the Board requests that government may be pleased to extend the permanent exemption granted on behalf of G. Balakrishnamachari in G.O. Mis No. 412 Edl. dated 13th July 1909 to his employment as Head clerk in the Kistna District Forest Office also.

Owing to the raising of the status of the Ganjam District Forest office, it was found necessary to transfer C. Balakrishnamachari elsewhere on the same pay. The Comr. accordingly posted him as head clerk of the Kistna District Forest office. The transfer was then in the public interests & not ^{of} the clerk's own seeking - The clerk has apparently now ^{in the Forest branch} put in 22 years' service (vide Collier's letter d/ 2-6-09 in go. mis no 412 d/ 13-7-09). In 1909, the Col. recommended, & the Rev Dept supported that recommendation, that the clerk should be granted a general exemption from account higher. But H.E. Sir Murray Haume ordered that the exemption should apply to his appointment as head clerk ^{of the} Gaujam St Forest Office only. Now that the clerk has been transferred in the public interests as head clerk of the Kistna, St Forest Office, Revenue may, it is submitted, support the Board's request that the exemption granted in 1909 should be extended to ^{his} new appointment.
