My dear Davidson,

Siva Sanker Singh, son of Risaldar Hari Singh, His Excellency's Indian A.D.C., wants to get an appointment in the Police Department. I wrote to Cowie about it and Cowie replies that he is willing to try the boy if he can be exempted. His Excellency would like him to be exempted if possible and would be glad if you could see the boy with a view to that being done.

Yours sincerely,

Belium

The Hon'ble Mr. L. Davidson, I.C.S.,
Ag. Secretary to Government, Educational Department,

Attention is invited to f.o. no. 197, dated 5th April 1911, in which f.o. declined to grant ~~the~~ a similar application for exemption on behalf of Sivasankar Singh. The Honble Member ~~then~~ considered that the nominee was ^{then} too young to be appointed a police inspector, being then only 20 years of age against the prescribed ~~as~~ minimum age of 21 for inspectors, but stated that if he did well at school, he would be ready to reconsider his case if the application were renewed this year.

2. Apparently there is nothing to be said against his career as student ^(during) last year. The I.G. recommends the exemption.

3. The Judicial Department may be consulted.

The boy was reading in the IV Form in March 1911, and is apparently in the V Form now. If he is allowed to remain in school for one more year, he will have undergone the full course required for a school leaving certificate.

2. Before confirmation, a probationary Inspector should pass (i) the final examination of the Provincial Training School, Vellore, (2) the Criminal Test, Lower grade. ~~(3) the Provincial Training School examination.~~ Care should be taken to see that the Candidates general knowledge is sufficient to enable him to pass these tests successfully within the two or three years of his probation. Orders are solicited as to whether the boy's school monthly progress report may be obtained for the perusal of Govt.

The youth seems quite up to the average, but I do not exempt him for appointment as Insp^r of Police unless his father definitely assures that he will stick to that department & not try to get into the Army.

Orders are solicited as to whether the exemption applied for may be granted. If the exemption is to be granted it is also for consideration whether the assurance suggested by the Dy. Secy

Indriah, should be obtained from the father.
 The assurance does not, however, appear to be quite necessary and need not perhaps be insisted upon. Even should ~~the~~ Sivasaugh get ~~himself~~ transferred to the army, it will not matter much.

2. Subject to approval, a draft sanctioning the exemption is submitted.

This youth is much too young for the post of Inspector of Police which is now a much more responsible post than it used to be. How can we expect to get well-educated young men to enter as sub-inspectors if a youth like this is put over their heads? If he wants to enter the police he should do so as a sub-inspector. A salary of Rs 50 with horse allowance and free quarters is a very good start indeed for a young man of these educational qualifications.

I agree that he is too young & we will educate him in a sub-inspector's post. He will take his independence.

A draft D.O. to Mr. Conie is submitted below for approval:—

My dear Conie,

With reference to your D.O. letters of the 1st April and 13th May 1912, regarding the exemption of Sivasankar Singh from the examination rules for employment as an Inspector of Police, I am directed to state that the Govt. considers him ~~not~~ ^{outfit} too young and not well educated ~~for~~ ^{would} for the responsible post of an Inspector. They ~~would~~ ^{would}, however, be prepared to grant him the necessary exemption if he would accept the post of a Sub-Inspector of Police.

Yours sincerely,
