leased to forward the same to Government with a recommendation to reconsider their previous decision.

2. P.S. Abboy Naidu has done consistently good work in this office and he has passed several years ago all the tests for which he can appear. He has been most favourably spoken of by the successive officers in charge of the party but there is at present small scope for further promotion inside the party.

He is young and intelligent and if he were allowed to appear for and pass the Judicial Tests would be in a position to apply with some hopes of success for a post in the ordinary Revenue Branch where a man of his ability would be of distinct service.

To,

The Secretary to Government (Education)

Honoured Sir,

I beg to approach again with an application for exemption from the Examination Rules which debar me from appearing for the Criminal Judicial Test, Lower Grade. I pray that the Government may be pleased to grant me the concession applied for, as a special case, so that I may qualify myself for the post of a Deputy Tehsildar.

2. I am a Matriculate of 14 years' standing and have a permanent place on Rs 50 in this Office and have passed marginally noted Special Tests with distinction. I am

| 2. Revenue Lower (First class) | |
| 3. Translation Lower (Tamil) | |
| 4. Precise Writing. | |
| 5. Rev. Insp's Survey Training. | |

3. I have worked hard in connection with the re-settlement of the Salem and Chingleput districts and have done special work in connection with the revision of the Salem and Chingleput District Gazette. I am now doing the duty of the Head Clerk in this Office.

4. I humbly beg to bring to notice that my work has been very favourably referred to by Messrs. F.J. Rich, M.A., I.C.S. and G.A.D. Stuart B.A., I.C.S. in the inspection reports of Salem and Chingleput districts respectively. Please see extracts from Board's Proceedings (herewith submitted).

I also beg to solicit attention to Mr. Stuart's letter Dis. No. 845/28-3-09 submitting my former application (dated 12.12.11) of in G.O. Educational Department No. 271/Mis. dated 4.4.12.

127 (P)

Recd. Secy. to Govt. 24/4/12

I.C.S. has also left a note fully expressing my opinion of me (Please vide copy enclosed).

5. I beg to submit that the next higher grade in this Department is that of the Supervisor on Rs 150 and chances of getting it are very remote as there are many seniors over me who are already aspiring to it. But posts in the grade of a Deputy Tahsildar on a lesser scale are available and I can go in for one of them if I pass the Criminal Judicial Test.

6. Though there is no immediate chance of my being appointed as a Special Deputy Tahsildar in this district owing to the Special Staff work nearing completion, I understand a chance of getting it in the district to be offered by this Party next. I am thus very eager to qualify for the post in the meanwhile.

7. I therefore pray that, as a special act of grace, I may be exempted from the Examination Rules for 3 years to enable me to appear for the Criminal Judicial Test, Grade.

I beg to remain,

Honoured Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. M. B. B. B.

P.S. Abboy Naidu has been doing the work of Head Clerk in my Office for the past year. He is a subordinate of exceptional intelligence and possesses a better knowledge of English than that possessed by most F.As. He has done very well in the Tests so far passed by him. I consider that he would be a distinct acquisition to Government Service in the higher grades to which he aspires, and that it would be a mistake to tie him down to his present grade on account of a technical dis-qualification.

(Signed) G.A.D. Stuart,
28-8-1909
Special Settlement Officer.

IV.

As I am proceeding on long leave and as P.S. Abboy Naidu informs me that he wishes to apply again, later on, to be exempted from the examination rules which debar him from appearing for the Criminal Judicial Test, I wish to record the fact that I fully agree with Mr. Stuart in the opinion expressed in para 2 of the above disposal. I have a very high opinion of P.S. Abboy Naidu's ability. (Sd) J. Gray,
Spl. Sett. Officer.

b

C. No. 1263 From the Board of Revenue No 913, dated 26-4-1912.

SUBJECT. Application of Mr. P. S. Abbey Naydu for permission to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade.

J.

Please see G.O. 271 E.O. 4th May 1909 and the notes connected with it. In that order the Govt. declined to permit P. S. Abbey Naydu who was then the permanent 2nd clerk on Rs 35 and S. P. T. Head Writer on Rs 45 of the Settlement Party to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade. Abbey Naydu is now the head clerk on Rs 50 of the same party in Vellore.

2. The Board of Revenue submits for the orders of Govt. a letter from the Special Assistant Settlement Officer (Mr. H. A. Watson) in which the latter requests a reconsideration of the G.O. referred to above. ^(But the Board does not offer any remark on the report.) The reasons urged in support of the application are purely personal. But it is stated that in the Revenue dept² a man of his ability would be of distinct service."

3. It is ^{doubtful} ~~for consideration~~ whether ~~any~~ sufficient reasons exist for a reconsideration of the previous decision. The file may be forwarded to the Revenue dept² no. 4 for favour of remarks.

Abby Naidu is a manipulator & in order to qualify himself for promotion as a Dy. Tahsildar he seeks permission to appear for the Provincial Judicial Test, Lower Grade, to which only men who have passed the F.A. & the Intermediate Exam. of the Madras University can ordinarily appear. The application he made in 1907 was refused on the ground that it was on the whole advisable to work the rules rigorously although in some cases it seemed doubtful whether ^{the} rules ought to be strictly enforced. Abby Naidu's case appears to be one of these doubtful cases. He is spoken of exceedingly well by the S.S.O's under whom he has worked. Mr. G.H.D. Stuart says that Abby Naidu "would ^{be} a distinct acquisition to the Service in the higher grades to which he aspires" & Mr. Gray fully agrees with Mr. Stuart. Mr. G.H.D. Stuart says further that the man possesses exceptional intelligence & ~~possesses~~ a better knowledge of English than that possessed by most F.A.'s. If passing exams. brilliantly is a test of more than ^{average} intelligence (& ordinarily it may, it is absurd, to be taken to be such)

Abbey Naidu appears to be a man of such intelligence as to have passed the Accr. Higher as 1st in the Presidency & the Rev. Lower in the 7th class. He is otherwise (as seen in the Steel Dept) once noted against giving permission to appear for the Criminal test in a similar case that he rarely found a matriculate who was capable of doing justice to the work of a Tahr in these days. Against this general opinion, Abbey Naidu may be held to be an exception in view of the testimony borne by the S.S.O's who know the man ^{personally} & his abilities. With his present qualifications, Abbey Naidu can aspire to any of the following posts:-

(1) In the Revenue office

Head clerk in Rs 150; Second clerk in Rs 70, Assistant Accountant in Rs 70 & Cashkeeper in Rs 70.

(2) In Divisional office Head Clerk in Rs 70

(3) In T.R. office Head Accountant in Rs 70

If he passes the Criminal test, he may rise to be a Dy Tahr or a Tahr if the Collector certifies that his merits are such that the interests of the District administration will be distinctly promoted by his effort. Although it seems that there is ^{now} no scope for his promotion without the exceptional treatment asked for, the applicant's case appears to be one in which the benefit of the doubt may be given in his favour. In view of, as a Spt. Supt. in connection with the operations of the Nandu will be of great ^{utility} service in view of his experience in the settlement Dept.

Please see note to

G.O. 271./4.5.09.

I accepted the draft order a H.M. had disagreed with me in another case. As the case has come up again I think the G.O. might be reconsidered.

Exemption gives a man no claim to the appointment to which he aspires. But it stimulates him to better work, and if a man has shown promise of deserving promotion personally I think it is a mistake to say to him no. You failed to pass or did not go up for such and such an Exam. in your school days & therefore

You must be content to remain

The necessity for a strict appⁿ of
