G.O. No. 705, Educational, dated 10th October 1908.

ABSTRACT.—Stating that the Government of India have passed orders on the recommendations of the conference of the Principals of the Schools of Art held at Calcutta regarding the preparation of the illustrated pattern books of Indian art industries, and requesting the Superintendent, School of Arts, Madras, to proceed with the work on the lines suggested by the conference and to state what additional establishment, if any, will be required for the speedy completion of the work.

II

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—Madras, the 8th May 1912.

No.—Ref. on Cur. 2436.

With reference to paragraph 7 of G.O. No. 705, Educational, dated 10th October 1908, I have the honour to state that the volumes relating to metal work have been completed and that I am sending the manuscripts and proofs of the illustrations to the Superintendent, Government Press, for printing and for transmission of the proofs to Mr. Hadaway's home address for correction at his own request.

2. As regards the paper and size of the proposed publication Mr. Hadaway informs me that he has already made a suitable selection in consultation with the Superintendent, Government Press. I think their selection may be accepted.

3. With reference to paragraph 5 of the Government Order referred to above, I beg to enquire whether an "artisan edition" will not suffice or whether a "public edition" should be printed in addition to the former.

I request the favour of being also informed whether 1,000 copies of the book may be printed. Mr. Hadaway considers that this number will be sufficient.

Order—No. 535, Educational, dated 18th June 1912.

The Government approve the proposal to print and publish 1,000 copies of the illustrated pattern books of Indian art industries relating to metal work in accordance with the arrangements made by Mr. Hadaway in consultation with the Superintendent, Government Press. They consider that it will be sufficient for the present if the "artisan" edition alone is published.

The paper and size selected by Mr. Hadaway in consultation with the Superintendent, Government Press, for printing the illustrated pattern books may be approved. The number of copies to be printed may also be fixed at 1,000.

2. The question for consideration is whether a "public" edition should be printed in addition to the "artisan" edition. Paragraph 7 of India's letter on page 3 of G.O. No. 487, Educational, dated 14th July 1905. It was the Government of Bombay who first suggested that the books should be issued in two styles—one to be issued at a cheap price to artisans and one more highly priced for sale to the general public. The suggestion was considered by the conference of the Principals of the Schools of Arts held in Calcutta in 1905-1906, who were unanimously of opinion that such a style would best meet requirements which the books were intended to serve. The Government of India, however, doubted whether it was necessary to publish a "public" edition as proposed by the conference and observed that, if it was decided to publish a "public" edition as well as the "artisan" edition, the former should merely be a reproduction of the latter but that it should be better got up and should not contain any working drawings. Attention is also solicited to the Government of India's letter on page 2 of G.O. Nos. 106-107, Educational, dated 21st February 1905, which explains the purpose which these books are intended to serve.

3. It is for consideration whether two editions of the book should be printed.

P.R.—22-5-12.

The public edition of the pattern book, in the form in which only it could be issued under the orders of the Government of India, was not acceptable to the conference—paragraph 11 of its report on page 4 of G.O. No. 797, Educational, dated 29th November 1907. The elaborate reform of it, suggested by the conference, did not find favour with the Government of India; nor are they keen about issuing a "public" edition at all. The Director of Public Instruction enquires whether it "will not suffice" to issue an "artisan edition" alone. Though he does not definitely express any opinion on the point, he does not seem to consider any additional edition as very necessary. It might have been useful if he had reported whether there was any demand for it. It seems on the whole to be better to publish only the "artisan edition" for the present. The other proposals may be approved.

C. RAMANUJACHARI—24-5-12.

Yes: but can you give me no idea of the cost of this edition. The assent of Financial may be necessary.

L. DAVIDSON—25-5-12.

Please see paragraph 5 of the letter to India, No. 107, Educational, dated 21st February 1905, in which it was stated that the cost of the scheme in its initial stages would be Rs. 60 a month for two draftsmen with an amount which should not exceed one or two thousand rupees per annum for miscellaneous expenses. No reliable information is available as to what the cost would be eventually. The conference considered that the average annual expenditure would be Rs. 7,200 for Madras; this sum included Rs. 2,000 for reproduction of plates, printing, etc.

C. RAMANUJACHARI—27-5-12.

Draft, and if there is any doubt regarding the need for concurrence by Financial, send to that department for acceptance.

L. DAVIDSON—28-5-12.

A draft order is submitted for approval.

2. In the Civil Budget Estimate for 1912-13 there is no provision for the proposed expenditure. The draft order therefore requires the acceptance of Financial.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

The illustrated pattern books relating to metal work are to be printed at the Government Press, Madras, and the paper required will apparently be obtained from the Stationery office. The cost of printing, and of the paper, will therefore be debited to the head "30. STATIONERY AND PRINTING", and no provision under "22-F. EDUCATION—GOVERNMENT SCHOOLS, SPECIAL—SCHOOL OF ARTS" is necessary. The draft order may, it is submitted, be accepted in Financial.
