Government of India sanction deputation for two years from beginning July next but see no sufficient reason for permitting allowance in excess of that permissible under article 81 of Civil Service Regulations. This rule is observed with great strictness. Please inform whether Governor in Council would be satisfied with allowance of Rs. 300 for Stone. -----

Advance copy submitted to His Excellency the Governor.

The papers relating to Mr. Stone's deputation are now in the press and I have telegraphed for them. His Excellency will remember, however, that the scale of Rs.500 per mensem was deliberately fixed as -- Mr. Stone's deputation allowance because it was -- thought that no less sum would constitute an inducement sufficient to secure his return to India at the close of the vacation. It is submitted therefore that Government should press for Rs.500. Mr. Stone left for England on the 4th instant and will presumably reach London on Saturday next. I am sending ^copy of the telegram and this note unofficially to the Director of Public Instruction.

I sh<sup>d</sup> think probably
Mr. Stone would accept the
Rs 300/ but I will consult J.

Mr Stone would not be satisfied with Rs 300 and I think that he ought to have more. I have no arguments to add to those adduced by the Secretary in the draft letter to the Government of India which he showed to me.

The last sentence of the telegram seems to invite dissatisfaction
