Station Vizagapatam , Dated the 5th June 1902 .

From (Name) J. R. Huggins Esq., I.C.S.,

(Designation) Collector of Vizagapatam.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Educational Department.

Sir,

To

His Excellency the Right Honourable

Sir Murray Hammick, K.C.S.I., C.I.E.,

Governor in Council,

Madras.

(Through the Collector of Vizagapatam)

May it please your Excellency,

The humble petition presented by Kolluru Lakshminarayana, Taluk Head Accountant, Sarvasidhi

Taluk sheweth:-

2. That your petitioner passed the Matriculation Examination of the Madras University in 1885 and studied up to the F.A. Standard but he could not continue his studies further owing to ill-health and that he passed the special tests noted in the margin.

■ Hand-writing Test.

Precis Writing, Higher Grade.

Translation Test, Lower Grade.

Revenue Test, Lower Grade.

Translation Test, Higher Grade (Telugu).

Account Test Higher Grade.

3. That your petitioner was the founder of the Ripon Hindu Theological High School; Vizianagaram, which was opened to impart secular and religious education somewhat on the lines of the Hindu University of Benares, that he rendered honorary services for full five years in the said institution which produced hundreds of Matriculates during the past two decades and that he also opened a free elementary school as a feeder to the above said institution.

4. That your petitioner published translations for certain portions of the Sanskrit Valmiki

Ramayana and Panchatantram for the use of the Matriculation

candidates

candidates and also published numerous leaflets in Telugu under the auspices of the Vidyabhivarthani Sabha of Vizianagram with a view to educate the masses before his entertainment in the public service.

5. That as your petitioner passed the Hand-writing, Precise writing Translation Lower and Revenue Lower without Account Code previous to his entertainment in the public service and that as there were hardly any Graduates in the Collectorate, your petitioner handed over the charge of the said institutions to a Managing Committee and joined the Revenue Department.

6. That a kind perusal of the enclosed copies of testimonials given by Dewan Bahadur S. Venkata Ramadas Nayudu Garu, B.A., B.L., the present Secretary to the Commissioner of Revenue Settlement and the Honourable Mr. Ayling, now one of the judges of the High Court of Judicature, Madras, will show how hard he worked previous to his confirmation in the Revenue Department though he joined in service on 6th January 1890.

7. That your petitioner was not confirmed on R^s. 15/- till April 1892 and was appointed to act at the same time as 2nd Class Revenue Inspector on R^s. 35/- since he gave entire satisfaction to Mr. Willock the then Collector and that he was confirmed in the said post on appeal in 1897 by the Honourable Mr. Horne, the then Collector even in supersession of the claims of his seniors in service as Dewan Bahadur V. Jagannadharao Pantulu Garu who was once in the Revenue Secretariat remarked in his Jamabandi report (Extract herewith submitted) that your petitioner was the only Revenue Inspector up to the mark in the Sarvasidhi Taluk.

8. That your petitioner appeared once for the Criminal Lower Grade but he could not then succeed as he had to appear for the Revenue Lower Grade and the Account Test Lower as Mr. Wolfe Murray the then Collector directed him to revert to his permanent appointment for want of those examinations; that your petitioner passed the Revenue Lower and the Account Test Lower the same year and that the privilege of appearing for the Criminal Judicial Tests for Matriculates was withdrawn afterwards.

7.

8.

9.

9. That your petitioner passed the Translation Higher Grade in Telugu most creditably in the First Class with a view to qualify himself as Translator in the Collector's Office.

10. That your petitioner worked as Senior Inam Revenue Inspector on R^s. 50/- for five years and that during this period, he gave satisfaction to the Inam Commissioners, Honourable Messrs. J.N. Atkinson and Andrew, so much so that the Inam Deputy Collector brought the meritorious services rendered by your petitioner to the notice of the Board of Revenue (Please vide para 11 of the Inam Deputy Collector's report and the Board's Resolution thereon No. 264 dated 9th October 1907).

11. That in consideration of your petitioner's good work in the Inam duty Mr. Parsons, the then Collector confirmed him as Taluk Head Accountant on R^s. 50/- and that the pay of your humble petitioner will be raised to R^s. 70/- as the Meyer's scheme is expected to come into force within the close of the calendar year and as your petitioner passed the Account Test Higher Grade, the requisite qualification of the Head Accountant in the Collector's office.

12. That the other two Inam Revenue Inspectors who worked along with him in the Special duty were Matriculates like himself but were appointed as Deputy Tahsildars in the plains only since they passed the Criminal Judicial Tests.

13. That your petitioner will have to obtain the Diploma in Commerce at the Government Technical Examinations being a Matriculate as laid down in the Revised Public Service Notification to enable him to appear for the Criminal Higher or Lower Grade and that he is unable to obtain the said Diploma without undergoing regular instruction in the Technical schools.

14. That the exemption of V.S. Padmanabha Iyer Avergal, a mere clerk in the Tinnevely Collectorate emboldened your humble petitioner to approach your Excellency with this just and reasonable prayer. (Please Vide Fort St. George Gazette dated 9th January 1912, page 34).

Pls. note (2)

correction books.

15. That your petitioner begs to submit that there are 14 Ordinary and 9 Agency Taluks in this district and that there are still unpassed men as Deputy Tahsildars in the Agency tracts.

16. That, in conclusion, your humble petitioner requests your Excellency to be graciously pleased to exempt him from obtaining the Diploma in commerce for two years so as to enable him to appear for the Criminal Higher or Lower Grade in view of the eminent service rendered by him in the cause of education mentioned in paras 3 and 4 supra as well as in the Inam Special duty.

For which act of kindness and generosity your Excellency's humble petitioner shall, as in duty bound ever pray.

Your Excellency's Humble servant,

Kolluru Lakshminarayana

Kolluru Lakshminarayana Pantulu who is now a clerk on Rs. 15/- in this office has been under me for the last 9 months and more as a clerk on a pay varying from Rs. 15/- to Rs. 30/-. He is a very intelligent man and writes a very excellent hand which lends lustre to his intelligence. I have made a special attempt to provide him with a permanent appointment during my stay in this district but I regret to state that I have not been successful. He is a man of very active and diligent habits also.
