EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

I

G.O. Nos. 368, 369, Educational, dated 30th April 1912.

ABSTRACT.—Directing that the Secretary of State be addressed on the subject of the terms upon which temporary members of the Indian Educational Service should be engaged and forwarding to the Government of India a copy of the despatch to the Secretary of State.

II

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. H. SHARP, C.I.E., Joint Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education (Education).

To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Dated—Simla, the 15th June 1912.

No.—1344.

I am directed to reply to your letter No. 369, dated the 30th April 1912, enclosing a copy of a despatch No. 1, of the same date, to the Secretary of State for India.

2. I am to say that the Government of India approve the suggestions which have been made by the Government of Madras in their despatch and I am to enclose a copy of a despatch in which it is suggested that the conditions proposed for officers temporarily employed in the Indian Educational Service should be made applicable to all such officers employed in India.

3. I am at the same time to point out, for the information of the Governor in Council, that the communication in question ought to have been made in the first place not to the Secretary of State but to the Government of India under the Home Department circular letter No. 2546-47, dated the 17th June 1872, which still remains the standing order in cases of this nature.

ENCLOSURE.

Despatch—from the Government of India, Finance Department (Pensions and Gratuities).

To—His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Dated—Simla, the 6th June 1912.

No.—140 of 1912.

We have the honour to address your Lordship on the subject of a despatch No. 1, Educational, dated the 30th April 1912, which the Government of Madras have addressed to your Lordship, regarding the conditions of temporary employment in the Indian Educational Service.

2. We are of opinion that in the light of the Duke of Argyll's despatch No. 22, dated the 29th February 1872, the Government of Madras were precluded from making the present reference to your Lordship. We are addressing the Government of Madras on this subject.

3. Apart from this consideration we are fully in accord with the proposals which the Government of Madras have made and we support to your Lordship the proposal for extending to temporary officers of this service who may be employed in any part of India the condition (to be expressed in their agreements) that should such an officer be subsequently confirmed in the Indian Educational Service he shall, if there be no break in his service, count as service towards leave and pension the entire period of his temporary employment prior to confirmation; and further that (in respect of his subsequent confirmation) he shall be permitted, during his temporary service, to earn and to draw increments on the same terms as though he were in regular service. This we consider would form the most satisfactory interpretation of the proposals put forward in paragraph 3 of the despatch of the Government of Madras, which is not wholly free from ambiguity on this point.

4. We also suggest that, should these proposals commend themselves to your Lordship, their application to the cases of temporary officers now serving in India and not yet confirmed may be left to our discretion.

From the Government of India, Department of Education (Education), No. 1344, dated 15th June 1912.

The Government of India have recommended to the Secretary of State for adoption the conditions of temporary employment in the Indian Educational Service suggested in this department despatch No. 1, dated 30th April 1912. They point out that the suggestion of this Government ought to have been made in the first place to the Government of India under Home Department Circular No. 2546-47, dated the 17th June 1872, printed with G.O. No. 821, Public, dated 20th July 1872, on pages 570—572 of the volume put up.

2. The letter from the Government of India may, it is submitted, be recorded. A draft is submitted for approval.

3. It is for consideration whether the letter may be communicated to all other departments of the Secretariat for information of the ruling contained in it.
This seems unnecessary.
C. RAMANUJACHARI—5-7-12.

T.K.—4-7-12.

The circumstances under which the Secretary of State came to be addressed direct were peculiar. The communication arose out of a reference from the India Office as to the pay to be granted to Mr. Ross during his temporary appointment. Please see Mr. Seton's letter printed on page 2 of Notes with G.O. No. 368, Educational, dated 30th April 1912. The necessity for addressing the communication through the Government of India was not overlooked. Please see His Excellency's note, dated 28th February 1912, on page 7 of the notes above referred to.

C. RAMANUJACHARI—5-7-12.

The Government of India is technically in the right. We should probably not have addressed the Secretary of State direct, had not his Judicial Secretary raised these questions in his letter about Mr. Ross' agreement which came direct to Madras and not through the Government of India.

(Director of Public Instruction should see u.o. later on.)

L. DAVIDSON—5-7-12.

M. H[AMMICK]—6-7-12.

Submitted that the file may be sent to the Director of Public Instruction u.o. for perusal as already marked.

C. RAMANUJACHARI—9-7-12.

Yes: on his return from Simla for which he left early this morning.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filed in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
