READ—the following papers:—

I

G.O. No. 5, Educational, dated 6th January 1910.

ABSTRACT.—Declining to permit G. R. Dadaswami Rao, clerk in the office of the Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Criminal Investigation Department and Railways, Madras, to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade.

II

From—the Hon'ble Mr. D. W. G. COWIE, I.C.S., Inspector-General of Police.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—Madras, the 9th May 1912.
No.—R.C. 537-P.R.

APPLICATION for exemption from the examination rules of an unpassed candidate to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade.

1. Name, age and educational qualifications of the unpassed candidate for whose exemption sanction is sought.	G. R. Dadaswami Rao, age 32 years. Has passed the Matriculation examination, the Account test, higher grade, and the Departmental test in Police Orders and Practice.
2. The post in which it is proposed to employ him and nature of the appointment, i.e., whether acting or sub. pro tem. or temporary.	Accountant of a District Police office when an opportunity occurs.
3. The pay of the post and the pay proposed to be given to the unpassed candidate.	Rs. 60 to Rs. 80.
4. The examination from which exemption is sought.	Permission to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade.
5. The period for which the appointment is expected to last.
6. The period for which sanction is now sought (with dates of commencement and of termination).	To appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade, at the Special Test Examinations to be held in 1912 and 1913.

7. Is this a first application or one for a renewal of a previous sanction? If for renewal, quote the previous order granting sanction and state for how long the candidate has been already exempted.	Application was made on behalf of this clerk in 1909 but was not sanctioned— vide G.O. No. 5, Educational, dated the 6th January 1910.
8. What steps have been taken to procure the services of a passed candidate and with what result?	Clerks qualified for the post of accountants in Telugu districts are very few.
9. Recommendation of the head of the department.	This clerk has passed all the tests necessary for an accountant's post except Criminal lower. For want of suitable Telugu-knowing clerks qualified for the post of accountants he is again recommended for the exemption. The Deputy Inspector-General, Criminal Investigation Department and Railways, in whose office the clerk is now employed, recommends the exemption.
10. Remarks.	The recommendation is made in the interests of departmental administration.

Official Memorandum No. 2402/A-1, Judicial, dated 22nd June 1912.

Criminal Judicial test (lower grade) was prescribed for accountants in District Police offices in G.O. No. 68, Educational, dated the 13th February 1900, not because they require any knowledge of the Criminal Law quâ accountants but on the ground that they may have to take the manager's place in leave arrangements or permanent vacancies. But the other clerks in the office are not obliged to pass the Accounts test although they may be required to take up the accountant's place in similar contingencies. The Inspector-General is requested to state whether any administrative inconvenience would now be caused if accountants were not hereafter required to pass the Criminal Judicial test (lower grade) before confirmation as such though declared ineligible without this test to act as managers.

C. W. E. COTTON,
Deputy Secretary to Government.

To the Inspector-General of Police.

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. D. W. G. COWIE, I.C.S., Inspector-General of Police.
To—the Chief Secretary to Government.
Dated—Madras, the 6th July 1912.
No.—F.O.C. 235-A/Govt.

With reference to Judicial Memorandum No. 2402/A-1, dated 22nd June 1912, I have the honour to state that I do not consider that any administrative inconvenience would be caused by the alterations suggested in the memorandum; but I am of opinion that no accountant should be permitted to act as manager unless he has passed Criminal Judicial test, lower grade.

Order—No. 656, Educational, dated 19th July 1912.

In the circumstances now represented the Government are pleased, as a special case, to permit G. R. Dadaswami Rao, clerk in the office of the Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Railways and Criminal Investigation Department, to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade, in 1912 and 1913.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 656, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 19TH JULY 1912.

[SUBJECT.—Permission to appear for special tests.]

From the Inspector-General of Police, No. 537, dated 9th May 1912.

Please see G.O. No. 5, Educational, dated 6th January 1910, and the notes connected with it. In that order the Government declined to permit Dadaswami Rao to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade. The Inspector-General now requests a re-consideration of this order on the ground that “suitable Telugu-knowing clerks qualified for the post of accountants” are not available.

2. It is for consideration whether the above is a sufficient reason for re-considering the previous decision of Government. The remarks of the Judicial Department may be obtained u.o. in the first instance. The attention of that department may be solicited to the cases disposed of in G.O. No. 422, Educational, dated 15th May 1912.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

Reference is solicited to His Excellency's note at page 8 (page 4 of notes) of G.O. No. 422, Educational, dated 15th May 1912, and (as Honourable Member) at page 6 (page 4 of notes) of G.O. No. 5, Educational, dated 6th January 1910. Apparently the application should be refused.

S.D.—21-5-12.

Why is “Criminal lower” required of a police accountant? His duties quâ accountant do not require any acquaintance either with the Penal Code, Procedure or Evidence Act, do they?

C. W. E. COTTON—22-5-12.

Please see paragraph 2 of Inspector-General's letter on pages 2-3 of G.O. No. 68, Educational, dated 13th February 1900. “The accountant may also be required to “pass the Criminal lower test as he must be capable of discharging the manager's “duties during his absence on leave. The manager's appointment will ordinarily be “filled up from these accountants.” Please see also notes on pages 9-10 of that order.

P.D.R.—12-6-12.

S.D.—12-6-12.

The correspondence and Notes to G.O. No. 68, Educational, dated 13th February 1900, show that the Criminal lower was prescribed for police accountants not because they require any knowledge of the Criminal Law quâ accountant but because District Police offices are small and they may have to act in short vacancies for the manager and would be useless without such a qualification. It was not considered feasible apparently to issue executive orders that no accountant should be permitted to act as manager who had not passed the Criminal lower. Mr. Knapp wrote in 1900 that

“An accountant in a Superintendent's “office . . . might fairly complain if the clerk on Rs. 35 were put over

“his head as manager of the whole office”, but if a knowledge of Criminal Law is required of the manager and accountant does not possess it, I cannot see that he has any legitimate grievance. And have the other clerks in the District Police offices to pass the Account test, higher grade, before they can be confirmed because there is quite a chance of their having to act for the accountant, while the accountant acts for the manager? (The Account test, higher, is no less indispensable surely for an acting accountant than Criminal lower for an acting manager.) In the present case the applicant is fully qualified for an accountant's post, but cannot be confirmed, because he has not passed an examination which is of no immediate use to him. The present

A Inspector-General might perhaps be asked if any administrative inconvenience would now be caused if accountants were not hereafter required to pass Criminal lower. Of course accountants without this test would not be eligible to act as managers.

C. W. E. COTTON-15-6-12.

Very well. Ask the Inspector-General.

[Memorandum No. 2402/A-1, Judicial, dated 22nd June 1912.]

From the Inspector-General of Police, F.O.C. No. 235-A/Govt., dated 6th July 1912.

The Inspector-General considers that no administrative inconvenience would be caused if accountants in District Police offices were not hereafter required to pass the Criminal Judicial test (lower grade), but he is of opinion that no accountant should be permitted to act as manager unless he has passed that test. For orders.

S.D.—10-7-12.

The Inspector-General agrees with my note at A above.

For orders.

C. W. E. COTTON—11-7-12.

I am not well acquainted with the inner working of the District Police office, but I should have thought it might be calculated to cause some administrative inconvenience if the accountant (on Rs. 60, 70 or 80) is not qualified to act for the manager owing to not having passed the Criminal lower test and if a clerk on Rs. 50 (or perhaps Rs. 40) has to be put in instead.

I should be inclined to keep the rule as it is and to let this man, who is aged 32, appear for Criminal lower.

A. G. CARDW—12-7-12.

I agree with the Chief Secretary.

H. A. S[TUART]—13-7-12.

The case may now go back to the Educational Department for issue of orders. (They may perhaps be asked to print the papers and send a notes copy to this department).

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
