For orders whether the Board's recommendation for exemption will be supported in this Dept.

It is necessary to advise in R. L. A. Dept to merit a certain number of men of this type meritorious of special qualifications which do not necessarily have to do with the case as in that of those to whom English is not a house language & of whom some proficiency in it examinations is given the only interest in the may support this instance, but please to separately the proportion which merits of this type have to the total enlistment.

Action being taken separately.
