Exemption from examination rules.

Declining to grant any general exemption to police officers serving in the Agency tracts from passing the special tests prescribed for the appointments held by them.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. D. W. G. COWIE, I.C.S., Inspector-General of Police.
To—the Chief Secretary to Government.
Dated—Madras, the 31st May 1912.
No.—R.C. 1223-Aud.

I have the honour to submit, for the approval of Government, a draft amendment to Police Order No. 46 of the new Police Order Book, Volume I, and Police Order No. 6 of Volume IV to permit in the Agency tracts, in accordance with the present practice, the promotion of unpassed men, who have not passed the special tests, to posts requiring those tests.

2. Under the Police Orders above quoted all Inspectors of Police except Reserve Inspectors are required to pass the Criminal Judicial Test, lower grade, and all managers and accountants, the Criminal Judicial Test, lower grade, Account Test, higher grade, and the Departmental Test in Police Orders. The passing of the special tests, however, is not insisted on in the case of officers in the Agency tracts in accordance with G.O. No. 120, Judicial, dated 26th February 1894, and paragraph 4 of the Inspector-General's letter read in G.O. No. 317, Educational, dated 9th May 1894. This fact was overlooked when the new Police Orders were drafted.

3. I may point out that no educational qualifications are required for appointments in the Agency tracts (vide article 2 of the Public Service Notification), and in these circumstances the passing of the special tests in the case of these men does not appear to be necessary. I request that Government will be pleased to issue orders to amend article 3 of the Public Service Notification.

ENCLOSURE.

Draft amendment.

Police Order No. 46, New Police Order Book, Volume I, page 10.—Add the following as a note to the Police Order:—

"The passing of the Criminal Judicial Test will not be insisted on in the case of Inspectors for the Agency tracts."

Police Order No. 6, New Police Order Book, Volume IV, page 2.—Add the following at the end of clause (4), after the word "officer": "except Jeypore".

Order—No. 695, Educational, dated 31st July 1912.

The Government are unable to grant any general exemption to police officers serving in the Agency tracts from passing the special tests prescribed for the appointments held by them.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 695, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 31st JULY 1912.

[SUBJECT.—Exemption of police officers in the Agency tracts from special tests.]

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

From the Inspector-General of Police, R.C. No. 1223-Audit, dated 31st May 1912.

The Inspector-General of Police submits, for the approval of Government, draft amendments to the Police Order Book permitting the appointment of men in the Agency tracts, who have not passed the special tests, to posts requiring these tests.

2. Under article 2 of the Public Service Notification appointments in the Agency tracts are excluded from the operation of article I, but this does not carry with it exemption from special tests also. (Vide note (3) under paragraph 4 of Special Tests Notification). The Inspector-General's proposals would therefore seem inadmissible unless the Public Service and Special Tests Notifications are simultaneously amended.

3. In paragraph 2 of the letter the Inspector-General states that the passing of the special tests is not insisted on in the case of officers in the Agency tracts, in accordance with G.O. No. 120, Judicial, dated the 26th February 1894, and paragraph 4 of the Inspector-General's letter read in G.O. No. 317, Educational, dated the 9th May 1894. These papers and the preceding orders on the subject (Nos. 308, dated the 19th February 1890, and 1265, dated the 8th July 1892) would however make it appear that the concession was not intended to be permanent. And in other departments Agency officers have to pass the special tests unless they are specially exempted by Government.

4. There were, on the 1st January 1912, twenty-one circles in the three Agencies, of which sixteen were in charge of sub-inspectors and other five of unpassed inspectors, as shown below:—

Ganjam.	Godavari.		Jeypore.		Vizagapatam.
Under sub-inspectors.	Under sub-inspectors.	Under unpassed inspectors.	Under sub-inspectors.	Under unpassed inspectors.	Under sub-inspectors.	Under inspectors.

5. The officers in charge of Agency Revenue taluks (called divisions) are mostly Deputy Tahsildars (and not Tahsildars) on pay of Rs. 120 and Rs. 150, with Agency allowance according to locality. It is for consideration whether, similarly, charge of

For orders.

C.W.E.C.—13-7-12.

Agency Police circles may not be held by sub-inspectors (who are not required to pass any tests) with suitable local allowances instead of by unpassed inspectors. If this course is considered objectionable or otherwise undesirable, orders are solicited as to whether, before the Inspector-General's letter is considered, the three Agents may be asked to report whether they are able to get qualified men to serve as Agency Deputy Tahsildars and to state whether they find much difficulty in inducing such men to serve in the Agency tracts.

S.D.—12-7-12.

As sixteen out of twenty-one circles in the Agencies are in charge of sub-inspectors at present the suggestion in the office-note supra is for consideration. I think the exemption of inspectors from passing special tests should be retained in the hands of Government and only exercised sparingly, as for example in favour of Uriya or Uriya-speaking inspectors.

C. W. E. COTTON—13-7-12.

I agree with the Deputy Secretary. I am not in favour of employing sub-inspectors as inspectors; and if we give a general exemption we shall have all sorts of incompetent men put in as inspectors.

H. A. S[TUART]—15-7-12.

Draft order is submitted. It may be sent to the Educational Department for acceptance and issue.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
