Sir,

The Government Muhammadian Girls' School, Satyamangalam, is situated at a distance of 16 miles from the Sub-treasury, at Gobichettipalayam. It has therefore been the practice for the Headmistress of the school to send the pay bills to the sub-treasury by post, and, for the sub-treasury officer to remit the amount of the bills by money order after deducting the money order commission thereon. The amount so deducted used to be subsequently recouped by drawing it from the treasury by means of a contingent bill. The Accountant General, to whose notice this has now been brought, observes that although, under the circumstances stated, the treatment of the money order commission as a contingent charge is not unreasonable
