Reference thereon No. 1509, dated 15th July 1912.

John Murugesan is a plant Collector of the Government Botanist on a pay of Rs. 25 per mensem. He was exempted from the examination rules in G.O. No. 325 Educational, dated 6th June 1899, in view to his employment as Plant Collector. The Director of Agriculture proposes to appoint him as Curator of the Museum at the Agricultural College and Research Institute, Coimbatore, on a pay of Rs. 25-3-40 created in G.O. No. 816, Revenue, dated 21st March 1912, and in view to his appointment to this post requests that he may be exempted again from the examination rules. The Board supports the request. The Director states that John Murugesan is the only suitable candidate out of the 30 applicants who responded to an advertisement published in the Fort St. George Gazette and that he possesses the special qualifications and museum experience which the post requires.
