To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Educational Department,

Sir,

I am desired to send you for disposal by the Government, the enclosed memorial from M. Jalaluddin, dated 30th July 1912.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Blair

Private Secretary.

SR CD

To

His Excellency the Governor-in-Council,

Fort St. George,

M A D R A S.

Humble memorial of Mangalore Jalaluddin, son of Muhammad Usman Saheb, Inamdar, pensioner, residing at Hale Ugran, Golicutta Bazar, Mangalore, South Canara.

May it please Your Excellency,

That your Excellency's humble memorialist is a poor Mahomedan belonging to high and respectable family in honour of - which it still holds a grant of Rs. 16 per annum; and the members of this illustrious family, Sayed Musa Raza and Sayed Jamaluddin, to whom a sanad was granted by Tippu Sultan Bahadur under his seal awarding the said Jamaluddin a handsome jaghir in 1200 Hijira, or about the year 1784, when the treaty of Mangalore was concluded, as the annexed abstract of the document will show, were holding high and respectable offices under the Government as appears from the accompanying copy of the certificate issued under orders of the Board by Mr. Henry Blair, the principal Collector of Canara. After their death, this distinguished family was much reduced to poverty but retained possession of the money allowance granted by Tippu Sultan which continues even to this day.

2 That your Excellency's humble memorialist, though proud of high and noble descent, which is a unique feature in the history of Kanara, tracing it from Sayed Jamaluddin, possessor of the Jaghir in old times by virtue of the sanad already referred to, on an annual payment of Rs. 16 and 75 for a house and a garden respectively, now belongs to one of the poorest Mahomedan families, which extreme poverty is to be accounted for by the fact that since the death of those distinguished persons, their successors were unable to hold high offices under the Government, ^{owing to} education being neglected, which alone is the key to open the doors of offices. This fact

fact becomes the more flagrant, because out of a considerable Mahomedan population of Kanara, scarcely more than a dozen Mahomedans have passed the Matriculation Examination; and though a Mahomedan undergraduate has become a rarity, a graduate is undreamt of in the history of Kanara. Under such circumstances, it may be imagined - what prospects can the Mahomedans of Kanara, with their almost limited education, entertain in offices and to what extent they can wield their influence.

3/ In the midst of this intellectual retrogression under which the Mahomedan community of Kanara is labouring, your Excellency's humble memorialist steered his way through difficulties of which it is useless to complain, and, after passing the Matriculation Examination, appeared for the Intermediate Examination in Arts, but without success. Even this failure in the Intermediate Examination in Arts becomes very conspicuous among a handful of Matriculates. To re-appear and pass the Intermediate Examination in Arts is thought impossible under circumstances so indigent, thus darkening all his prospects of becoming a graduate which would have imparted lustre to his family.

4/ In this connection it may not be out of place to point out that your Excellency's humble memorialist pursued an uninterrupted course of study during his scholastic career, - steady and brilliant, - the truth of which may be inferred from the fact that your memorialist was enjoying the Government scholarship ceaselessly from the lowest class right up to F.A; and it is a noteworthy fact that he is the only member of this family who has attained such a high standard of English education.

5/ That your Excellency's humble memorialist begs to communicate to your Excellency that, from time immemorial, the members of this notable family have, by virtue of this noble and high descent, and especially of the sanad granted by Tippu Sultan to this family, and last but not the least of the many certificates of merit from the distinguished Collectors and Judges, too numerous to be appended, enjoyed many substantial exemptions and concessions - from the just and benign British Government. Nor can such instances be ignored: To give one or two such instances: your memorialist's great-grand-father Jalaluddin brother of Jamaluddin, - possessor of sanad, became a Tahsildar (or Talugadar as it was then called) of Buntwal about the commencement of English rule in Kanara. To recall another recent instance: His uncle, Sheik Husain Saheb, got a sanad to practise as a Second Grade Pleader, by virtue of a petition, embodying all his testimonials, dated the 27th September 1881, addressed to the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras (the last sanad bearing No. 1115 dated 6th March 1891 and not renewed owing to death).

6/ That your Excellency's humble memorialist, therefore, most respectfully ventures to approach your Excellency with this memorial, praying that your Excellency will take this memorial into consideration and be graciously pleased to continue to your memorialist some substantial concession which his renowned ancestors had been enjoying so long by virtue of their noble and high descent, the possession of a sanad from Tippu Sultan, and the enjoyment of a money allowance - by exempting him from the last Intermediate Examination in Arts, 1912, in which he has failed in those subjects which are of no importance for the B.A. class, so as to render him eligible for a Sub Registrar's post in the Registration Department, granting him at the same time a Government certificate which will serve as an equivalent to the Intermediate Examination so as to enable him to pass the required tests whenever they will be deemed essential for promotion.

7/ That if the boon sought for be graciously granted, in view of the above mentioned circumstances, your Excellency's humble memorialist shall, as in duty bound, every pray.

He remains with the profoundest Respect,
Your Excellency's most humble and dutiful servant,

M. Jalaluddin
