SUBJECT. Exemption from the examination rules.

pages 2 of 4.

P. Ramaswami Aiyar whose exemption from the examination rules is recommended by the Collector of North Arcot (Mr. Majoribanks) appears to have risen from the position of an attender on Rs 8 p.m. to that of an Ag. Clerk on Rs 20 p.m. Except that he "worked very well" under the Special Plague officer at Vanniambari there is hardly any ground for any special treatment in the case. Submitted that following the precedent in Memo. No. 72 of 18-3-12 the Collector may be requested to report whether, in his opinion, the application can be justified on public grounds. Advantage may also be taken to ascertain whether the service of 12 years (pub in by Ramaswami Aiyar) included his service as an attender and how the candidate is.

It does not include. In 1904 he was an attender & in 1908 he was a permanent attender & acting clerk.

A reference does not seem necessary. It is clear that the application is made on personal grounds. Qualified candidates are not ranking in North Arcot and the application may be rejected if the Revenue has no objection -
