To

His Excellency The Right Hon'ble,

*Through the proper

The humble petition of Bathullinnisa
Begum Saheba residing at No. 56, Office
Venktachallum Mudly. Street, Triplicane, Madras.

May it please your Excellency,

Your Excellency's humble petitioner is the daughter of the late Salar Jung, Bukhsi-ul-mulk, Bahadur, Commander-in-chief of the forces of the last ruling Nawab of the Carnatic, and the grand-daughter of the late Dubcer-ul-mulk, Bahadur, Durbar Secretary to the same Nawab. Your Excellency's petitioner was allowed a stipend of Rs. 30, which Govt. were pleased to reduce to Rs. 15- in G.O. 384 Pol. dated 4⁹ 1861, on the ground that all her relatives then enjoyed large pensions. At present she has none of these relatives living and her only son who has a large family to support is not able to support her properly with the small income he earns. He is also too old to work any longer having served Govt. sufficiently long. He has a large family and many daughters to be married, therefore she undertook the education of his three male children. The increasing cost of education and maintenance of her grandsons compelled your Excellency's petitioner to commute her stipend of Rs. 15. She did not then feel sorry for it as she thought that her grandsons would in course of time support her. But fate seemed to be against her. Of the three grandsons the eldest is married and is not able to support his family with the small pay he gets. He is a clerk on Rs. 40, in the Tinnevely Collector's Office.

*not available
at 001 account*

He has two daughters. The second one was on medical advice compelled to discontinue his studies; and the third one was, on Your Excellency's humble petitioner's memorial dated April 1910 exempted permanently from the provisions of Art.1 of the Public Service notification for employment as a sub-inspector of Police in G.O.421 educational ^{dated 7} 18 1910. He accordingly entered the police department in 1910 and after a successful course in the Vellore school was appointed a sub-inspector. He was in service till the 1st. of March 1912, when it pleased God to take him away in the prime of youth. She was then under his protection. This blow was a great shock to the humble petitioner, who is over 80 years old. She is now left unprotected. Her second grandson, Muhammad Haider Muhajir to whom she had to look for support was appointed a preventive officer on Rs.20 in the customs department, Madras. He has now put in a service of about $3\frac{1}{2}$ years. Your Excellency's humble petitioner put in a petition to Govt. to exempt him from the provisions of Art.1 of the Public Service Notifications for promotions to higher grades of the preventive service. But unfortunately Govt. declined to grant her request in G.O. No.138 Edl. ^{dated} 16 2 1912. Your Excellency's humble petitioner cannot adequately express her disappointment when she learnt this sad news. The shock she received from the death of her younger grandson, who was supporting her and whom Govt. had exempted, was doubled at this disappointment. But as she could not do anything else, she had to put up with her fate. Govt. always renders help to members of respectable families. It was her father who disarmed the Nawab's army and handed over their arms to the Govt. agent Colonel Balfour. The petitioner hopes that there cannot be anyone who can have a better claim than your petitioner to the mercy of the Govt.; and humbly prays that Your Excellency will be pleased to reconsider the orders already passed and grant him the exemption prayed for. This will be the last request Your Excellency humble petitioner, a daughter of the renowned house, surpassing many others in respectability and nobility, will ever make to Your Excellency's Govt. while she is alive. If her grandson whom Govt were pleased to exempt in G.O. 421 Edl. dated 18 ⁷ had been spared to 1910 Your Excellency's humble petitioner, she would not have approached Your Excellency again for this indulgence. But as he is dead, Your Excellency's humble petitioner has to appeal to Your Excellency's mercy which she sincerely hopes will be extended to her in her bereavement. This boy will in future support your humble petitioner.

9/ v b

Your Excellency's humble petitioner once more humbly and respectfully prays to Your Excellency to be pleased to exempt her grandson, Muhammed Haider Muhajir from the examination rules to qualify himself for the higher grades in the preventive service of the Madras Custom House.

For which act of mercy and generosity, Your Excellency's humble petitioner would feel ever grateful.

NOTE FILE.

C. No. 2123. From the Board of Revenue No 727, dated 30.7.1912.

SUBJECT. Exemption from the examination rule.

E

In G.O. 138 Sd. 16th February 1912 the Govt. declined to sanction the exemption of Muhammad Haider Mohajir a preventive officer on Rs. 20 in the Custom House, Madras from the provisions of Art. 1 of the Public Service Notification for employment ^{in the higher grades of the department} as a preventive officer ~~in the Custom House~~. The decision of Govt. was based on the Collector's endorsement that he found himself unable to make a recommendation in the petitioner's favour ^{and the to Haider} as Muhammad Mohajir was only of average intelligence.

2. After seeing more of the preventive officer's work since January last, the Collector thinks that ^{Muhammad Haider} Mohajir "is both intelligent and diligent" and strongly recommends the exemption. The Board ^{does not make any recommendation itself} ~~is silent~~. It is for consideration whether the Collector's recommendation is made in the interests of departmental administration and whether it may be accepted. The remarks of the Revenue Dept. may be obtained u.o. in the first instance.
