He entered service as an European Head constable and was appointed Sub-Inspector in the Madras City Police in November 1899. He has worked satisfactorily and I do not think it fair to keep him back from his legitimate promotion for the mere reason that he has not passed the departmental test.Strongly recommended. |

[C 3279] From the J.G. of Police R.E. No 1343, d. 17.7.
To Deputy Secretary

Mr 2 + 3, CF

The Commr. of Police has sent up the names of two Inspectors in the City (one of them, an <sup>European</sup> Sub-inspector acting as Inspector, and the other, a B.A. & B.L., and Prosecuting Inspector) for ~~examination~~ exemption from passing the test in Police Orders and Practice. The applications are said to be made "solely in the interests of departmental administration".

Mr 7. 8 + 10 of the Rules for Village School (put up)
A Telephone message flagged D

2. The examination is held once a year (lasting a day with two papers of three hours each) in October and ~~is~~ is confined to Police Orders and practical questions thereon. It is controlled by the J.G. and not by the Commr. for Govt. Exams and appears to have been instituted <sup>in 1894</sup> before 1894.

P. 31 of S.O. 317 Edl (B) 9. May. 94

3. ~~7A~~ Knowledge of Police Orders is essential for the proper discharge of his duties by a Police Officer and the test has to be passed only "after appointment". It is not clear therefore what departmental interests will be served by exempting these officers from the test. For orders as to whether the Commr. may be requested to explain the necessity for exemption clearly.

I would exempt Padmanabha Naidu who is a prosecuting and not an executive inspector and has now held the post of inspector for a number of years. There is no reason to exempt Shortt.
