L. DAVIDSON—20-7-12,

Endorsement No. 1954-1, dated 25th July 1912.

The first four of these are Government schools. The Director of Public Instruction has also recently submitted proposals to open another higher elementary school at Vizianagram. Besides these, there are 22 lower elementary schools for girls in the district.

3. In connection with the programme for the expansion of female education in the presidency framed by the Director of Public Instruction for submission to the Government of India, the Director has proposed only twelve new secondary schools in the presidency for the next ten years. There are already eleven* other districts in the presidency without any provision for secondary education for girls. It is not therefore likely that any further outlay on the opening of new secondary schools in the Vizagapatam district will be possible under the programme. Provision is, however, made therein for the raising of the standards and grades of existing girls' schools. Under this part of the scheme the conversion of some of the nine higher elementary schools in the Vizagapatam district into secondary schools may be probable, but nothing can be said definitely at present. If considered necessary, the Director of Public Instruction may be asked to note the request in connection with the carrying out of the proposed programme.

A similar proposal, which formed the subject of a resolution, passed at the seventh Vizagapatam district conference, is being separately communicated to the Director of Public Instruction.

L. DAVIDSON—25-7-12.

Extract from His Excellency's reply to address from the Vizagapatam Municipal Council.

We have approved of the institution of a Government High School for Girls at Vizagapatam, thinking that, probably, by the aid of such a school it may become easier to provide for the rapidly increasing demand for a cultivated, well-educated caste of Indian lady teachers. Until teaching as a profession becomes popular among Indian ladies, I fear our advance in this matter must be very slow. I only hope that the experiment which we are now making among the Telugu people will prove a success. It is true that at present there are no secondary schools for girls in the Vizagapatam district, but unfortunately at the present time you share this misfortune with no less than eleven of the districts in the Presidency, which are also without provision for the Secondary education of ~~any~~ girls as far as Government schools are concerned. I cannot, indeed, promise that in the immediate future a Government Secondary school will be established at Vizagapatam, but I know that Dr. Boume, the Director of Public Instruction, has much at heart the development of this side of our national education, and he will no doubt examine your suggestion with much sympathy. I know that a similar proposal, which formed the subject of a Resolution at the Vizagapatam District Conference, has been separately communicated to him for consideration.
