Read—the following paper :—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department (through the Accountant-General).

Dated—the 13th July 1912.

No.— Ref. on Cur. 5554.

I have the honour to submit, for the favourable consideration of Government, the enclosed application from Miss Maud C. E. Karney, B.A., L.T., First Assistant, Secondary School for Girls, Presidency Training School for Mistresses, Madras, requesting that she may be granted a special allowance of £50 per annum in addition to her furlough allowance so as to enable her to undergo training at Cherwell Hall, Oxford, and to specialize in the teaching of English and Mathematics.

2. Miss Karney is a graduate of Madras University. She underwent training at the Teachers' College, Saidapet, in 1895 and took the L. T. Degree. Her training at Oxford will be very valuable.

3. She will have put in ten years' service in the department by the middle of October next when she will be eligible for a year's furlough. I have advised her to apply for six weeks' privilege leave on half pay from September next and furlough for one year in continuation thereof. The privilege leave is necessary to enable her to join the College at Oxford in time. Her present pay is Rs. 125 in the Rs. 100-10-150 grade.

4. In this connection I beg to invite the attention of Government to G.Os. No. 368, Educational, dated 28th September 1880, No. 213, Educational, dated 11th March 1895, and No. 399, Educational, dated 5th July 1898, in which special concessions have been granted to certain teachers to enable them to undergo training in England.

5. I therefore beg to recommend that Miss Karney's request may be favourably considered by Government and the sanction of the Secretary of State obtained, if necessary, subject to the condition that, after her return, she serves the department for at least five years or refunds the special allowance granted to her.

ENCLOSURE.

Letter—from Miss MAUD C. E. KARNEY, B.A., L.T., First Assistant, Secondary School for Girls, Presidency Training School for Mistresses, Madras.

To—the Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

Dated—the 26th June 1912.

I have the honour to submit the following application.

I am desirous of going to England in October next, when my furlough is due, with a view to undergoing a training at Cherwell Hall, Oxford, and to specialize in the teaching of English and Mathematics, if I can obtain help from the Government. As I have been informed, that to meet such cases as mine, the Government are prepared to allot a grant of £50 annually as a supplement to furlough allowances, I have the honour to request that you will be pleased to recommend me for the same and to apply on my behalf for this grant from October next to enable me to carry out this intention.

I learn, on good authority, that the Bengal Government have sent Miss Viruka, the First Assistant of the Dacca Training College, to England, on her full salary, Rs. 250 per mensem, plus a handsome scholarship, and that the Bombay Government, a few years ago, sent Miss Newland of the Poona Training College on an equally good scholarship to England. I trust the Madras Government will be as liberal in aiding the efforts of the women of this Presidency to improve their qualifications.

I may mention that I shall have served on the staff of the Presidency Training School for ten years in October next and that during that time my duties involved the teaching of Mathematics and English to the pupils of the High School, that the record of Matriculation results show that there has been a cent. per cent. pass in Mathematics for the past five or six years. One of the girls obtaining nearly 70 per cent. and another 60 per cent. of the marks last year. A few years back, one of the girls gained the Sathianadan gold medal for obtaining the highest marks in English at the Matriculation examination, and last year another girl again stood highest in English and was in the running for the medal, but it was awarded to the candidate obtaining the highest percentage of marks in the School Final.

A copy of my testimonials is herewith submitted.

Lawrence Military Asylum,
Sanawar, 7th February 1912.

Miss Maud C. E. Karney officiated as Head Mistress of the Girls' School of this Asylum from the 19th August 1901 to the 3rd February 1912, when she was relieved by the permanent incumbent of the post. She was here but a short time, but quite long enough for me to appreciate her good, steady and hard work. She was uniformly obliging, attentive to her duties and careful and punctual in their discharge. She was kind but firm with the girls; and did her best in every way for them. She was methodical and painstaking in her teaching and proved herself capable of managing a very big school.

A. H. HILDESLEY, M.A.,
Principal.

Doveton Protestant College, Madras.

Miss M. C. E. Karney, B.A., received the greater part of her education at the Doveton Girls' High School, from which she passed the Middle School Examination, the Higher Examination for women, and the Matriculation Examination all in the first class. For the First-in-Arts examination she studied at the Doveton College, when she took the first prize in the junior F.A. class, and finally passed the examination in 1891. She took her B.A. degree from the Central College, Bangalore, securing a second class in Science. After a year's training in the Teachers' College, Saidapet, she was entertained as First Assistant in the Doveton Girls' High School on 1st August 1896, and was entrusted with the teaching of Classics and Mathematics in the higher classes. The records of the institution show that during her tenure of office for a period of eighteen months including three months during which she acted as Head Mistress, she did excellent work, while the results of the Matriculation examination during her time, three passing out of four presented, also testify to the efficiency of her teaching. She left the institution in March 1898, to take up a better appointment in Ahmedabad. I may add then both as a pupil and as a teacher Miss Karney seems to have deserved, and to have obtained the good opinion of those under whom she worked.

17th October 1900.

D. A. MCCREADY,
Honorary Secretary,
Doveton Protestant College Committee.

I have much pleasure in testifying to the merits of Miss Maud Karney, who takes charge of the school as Head Mistress, until my successor arrives from England. She is capable of conducting the work of the school, and will, I am sure, give herself wholly and conscientiously to the work she has undertaken. She was educated in this school and passed her Matriculation here, afterwards taking her B.A. degree. I shall look forward to good results from her pupils and I am confident I shall not be disappointed. She has my best wishes for her success and well-being.

12th May 1897.

E. A. KEELY,
Superintendent,
Doveton Girls' High School.

Miss Maud Karney, B.A., was appointed First Assistant Teacher of the Doveton Girls' High School in August 1896.

When the Head Mistress, Miss Keely, retired, Miss Karney undertook the management of the school and carried out the duties of Head Mistress until my arrival, i.e., from July 1st to October 11th 1897.

Miss Karney has charge of Form 6, the Matriculation Form, and has taught them all subjects necessary for the examination, her special subjects being Science and Mathematics. She is thoroughly reliable, conscientious and high principled and fitted to carry on any educational work.

As far as I can judge in this short time, she is a good teacher, making her subjects interesting and keeping always the attention of her pupils.

I shall be very sorry to lose her.

Miss Maud Karney attended the Presidency Training School for Mistresses during 1896 for practical work in teaching.

Her preparation for the lessons she was required to give was very thorough and her notes of lessons left little to be desired. Miss Karney is I think conscientious in her work and she throws the utmost of which she is capable into the duties assigned to her.

It gives me great pleasure to testify to the high intellectual abilities and sound scholarship of Miss M. C. E. Karney, B.A. (Madras), First Assistant Mistress at the Mahaluxmi Female Training College, Ahmedabad. She possesses a remarkable ability in imparting knowledge which I could judge from the examination papers of her Matriculation class. Her pupils always did well, when they sat with our boys for the Terminal and Annual Examinations. In one of these Examinations one of her girls headed the list obtaining first class marks.

From all what I know of her I can safely predict a successful future for her as a first class teacher in any institution, either a European or an Indian.

JOSEPH J. GHOSE, M.A.,
Principal.

It gives me pleasure to certify that from my acquaintance with Miss Maud Karney during the two years of her residence in Ahmedabad I have formed a high opinion of her character and ability. She is of a kindly gentle disposition, and very painstaking in her work.

A number of our mission girls, some twelve or fifteen, were in attendance at her classes, and she won the respect and affection of them all. I believe her to be thoroughly conscientious as a teacher, taking an interest in each member of her class, and willing to give ungrudgingly to each the special guidance needed.

I regret that she is now leaving Ahmedabad and shall be glad to hear of her obtaining suitable employment in her chosen work of Education.

TRAINING CERTIFICATE.

This is to certify that Miss Karney, B.A., has been a student of the Teachers' College, Saidapet, for two terms in the year 1895 and that during this period her attendance has been good and her conduct very satisfactory.

2. She is a painstaking teacher, and has taken great interest in her degree work.

This is to certify that Miss M. C. E. Karney was a student in the junior B. A. class of this College during 1892 and the senior B. A. class during 1893, and that she distinguished herself by her earnest devotion to her studies. She gained the 3rd prize in English in her junior B. A. year and stood 3rd in English and 2nd in Latin for her senior B. A. year.

In January 1894 she appeared for the B. A. Degree Examination of the Madras University and passed the two Language Branches creditably. She failed in Science on account of her Practical Chemistry. But in the following year she attended the Central College for the Second Term and in January 1895 she passed the Science Branch with much credit, taking a second class. If she had been able to be with us for the whole of that year I have little doubt she would have stood very high in the University Physical Science pass list, for as it was she took the second place in our Second Term Science Examination of the senior B. A. class for 1894. Miss Karney was a model of regularity and attention to her studies, and I have no doubt if she devotes herself to teaching, as I understand she intends to do, that she will prove as conscientious and apt at teaching others as she was in learning.

This is to certify that Miss Maud C. E. Karney, was under my tuition preparing for the Higher Standard Examination in Gujarati, to be held before the Civil and Military Examination Committee in July last. She knows Gujarati very well she is specially well up in translating pieces from Gujarati into English and from English into Gujarati (pieces from the History of the Sepoy War by Col. Mallison and the Arabian Nights Entertainments and the Gujarati Seventh Series and Balmitra which is written in the Balbodh character). She speaks Gujarati very fluently. Had she been allowed to appear for the examination I feel sure she would have a good figure on the list.

Can you tell me whether anything is being done about giving a scholarship to the sister of Miss Karney mentioned in the enclosed letter.

Demi-official—from the Hon'ble Mr. L. DAVIDSON, I.C.S., Acting Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

To—the Hon'ble Sir JOHN ATKINSON, K.C.S.I., Member of Council.

Dated—the 9th August 1912.

I do not think anything has yet been done in the Secretariat about the scholarship for Miss Karney. She came to see me some time ago and while she was in my office room I telephoned to Bourne whom on my advice she afterwards interviewed. I believe it was his idea on receipt of her formal application to make a recommendation to grant her a special scholarship but no proposals have yet come from him.

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 13th July 1912, No. 5554.

Miss M. C. E. Karney is the first assistant in the secondary school for girls attached to the Presidency Training School for Mistresses. Her pay is Rs. 100—10—150 and she is now drawing Rs. 125. She is a graduate of the Madras University, has undergone training at the Teachers' College, Saidapet, and has taken the L.T. degree. She wishes to undergo a further course of training at Cherwell Hall, Oxford, in order to specialize in the teaching of English and Mathematics, and with this view proposes to take combined privilege leave and furlough for thirteen months and a half from 1st September next. The fees at Cherwell Hall for a six months' course, inclusive of board, residence and tutorial fees, appear to be £65; and as Miss Karney's furlough allowance of Rs. 62-8-0 per mensem will obviously be not sufficient to cover her expenses at Oxford, she applies for a special allowance of £50 or Rs. 750.

Page 2 of G.O. No. 830, Educational, dated 19th December 1906.

Rs. 62-8-0 per mensem will obviously be not sufficient to cover her expenses at Oxford, she applies for a special allowance of £50 or Rs. 750.

2. The Director of Public Instruction considers that Miss Karney's training at Oxford will be very valuable and recommends that her request may be favourably considered, subject to the condition that after her return she serves the department for at least five years or refunds the special allowance granted to her. The Accountant-General states that the sanction of the Secretary of State is necessary to the grant of a special allowance to Miss Karney.

3. In paragraph 4 of his letter the Director of Public Instruction cites three previous cases where special allowances were granted to certain teachers to enable them to undergo training in England. The first case referred to is that of Miss Bernard and Miss Shanmugam, assistants in the Government normal school (now the Presidency Training School for Mistresses) who were sent to England for training. Miss Bernard was sent with an allowance of Rs. 30; and her passage to England was paid by Government. Miss Shanmugam was granted an allowance of Rs. 170 per mensem, inclusive of her pay of Rs. 40; and her passage to and fro were borne by Government. A condition was imposed that the amounts drawn by them as allowances and passage money should be refunded in monthly instalments after their return from England.

4. The second case referred to is that of M.R.Ry. C. Krishna Menon of the College of Agriculture at Saidapet. He proceeded to England depending on his own resources to obtain an English diploma in Agriculture, but his studies there having proved more expensive than were at first anticipated, he applied for an allowance of £150. The Director of Public Instruction recommended the grant of an allowance of £100, subject to the condition that after his return Krishna Menon served in the College of Agriculture for three years and this recommendation was accepted by Government and sanctioned by the Secretary of State.

5. The third case referred to is the case of Mr. J. W. Coombes, who is now the Deputy Superintendent of the Reformatory School, Chingleput. He was then first assistant in the Government Madrasa-i-Azam, drawing a pay of Rs. 110 per mensem. He applied for leave of absence for two years on half pay to take a course at South Kensington in some of the technical subjects taught there and requested that he might be considered to be on duty during such leave. This application was allowed with the sanction of the Secretary of State, subject to the conditions that after his return he agreed to serve in the Educational Department for a term of five years and that he would not be considered eligible for furlough until he should have served in India for eight years after the resumption of his duty.

G.O. No. 399, Educational, dated 5th July 1898.

G.O. No. 399, Educational, dated 5th July 1898.

6. Besides the above cases, in 1906 Miss Patterson, Assistant Inspectress of Girls' Schools, West Coast range, applied for a special grant of Rs. 2,000 to enable her to undergo a course of training in England for six months. The Government after a consideration of all the previous cases on the subject, decided not to sanction her any special allowance as requested by her, but only to grant her an allowance of two-thirds salary during the period of training. As she was unable to proceed to England with the inadequate assistance offered, the matter was dropped.

Sir George Forbes.

A. G. CARDEW.

G.O. No. 58, Educational, dated 4th February 1907.

7. It will be seen that of the cases given above, only that of M.R.Ry. Krishna Menon of the College of Agriculture appears to be somewhat similar to Miss Karney's. The precedent of 1906 (Miss Patterson's case) is, however, against her. Though no specific reasons have been recorded in that case for disallowing the request, the fact that she proposed to proceed to England on her own account seems to have influenced the disposal. Though Miss Karney is now proceeding to England on personal grounds alone, her training will, in the opinion of the Director of Public Instruction, be valuable to the service. It is for consideration whether the Secretary of State may be requested to sanction a grant of £50 to Miss Karney subject to the condition that she serves the department for at least five years after her return from England or refunds the allowance granted to her. The file may be sent to Financial for remarks.

Please see the notes on page 3 of the notes with G.O. No. 830, Educational, dated 19th December 1906.

T.K.—21-8-12.

C.R.—22-8-12.

Educational may support the Director of Public Instruction's recommendation. As Miss Karney wants to start in September it will be necessary to obtain the Secretary of State's orders by telegram. Apparently the communication may go direct.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Of the precedents referred to in the Educational Department note ante the only one that is similar to the case now under consideration is that of Mr. Krishna Menon referred to in paragraph 4 ante. Krishna Menon was on leave in Europe, and he applied for an allowance of £150. The Government considered an allowance of £100 sufficient and proposed to treat it as an honorarium. The Accountant-General having held the sanction of the Secretary of State necessary to the grant of an honorarium of this amount—vide article 72 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations—his sanction was applied for and obtained. In all the other cases, viz., those of Miss Bernard, Miss Shanmugam, Mr. Coombes, the period spent in England was treated as deputation.

G.O. No. 399, Educational, dated 5th July 1898, and G.O. No. 149, Educational, dated 5th March 1898.

2. In the present case, if Government treat as an honorarium, the allowance of £50, or Rs. 750, which Miss Karney applies for during the period of her leave out of India, then the amount is within the Government of India's powers of sanction. The Accountant-General has, however, held that the sanction of the Secretary of State is necessary. He has apparently treated the case as one of deputation under articles 84-A and 85 of Civil Service Regulations.

* Article 12 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations and Rule IV on page 4 of G.O. No. 479, Financial, dated 2nd August 1912.

A. G. CARDEW—24-8-12.

3. Educational Department's proposal to address the Secretary of State direct in this matter is opposed to the orders† of the Government of India, to a breach of which they drew the attention of this Government in 1909. The Government of India will have, therefore, to be addressed in the present case. In addressing the Government of India the advisability of bringing the case under article 72 (b) of Civil Service Regulations may be suggested to them so as to avoid a reference to the Secretary of State. The Government of India will thereupon decide if the Secretary of State's sanction should be obtained.

We may agree with Educational that the Director of Public Instruction's recommendation may be supported on the condition he names in paragraph 5 of his letter. It would be a cheap way of getting this teacher an English training. But I think it must go to or through the Government of India.

Submitted that the file may now be circulated to His Excellency the Governor for orders. Subject to approval a draft telegram to the Government of India is submitted below.

2. In the draft, the question whether the sanction of the Secretary of State is necessary or not is not touched upon. It has been left to that Government to decide whether their sanction would be sufficient.

3. Against paragraph 1 of the Director of Public Instruction's letter the Chief Secretary has entered the words "per annum" to be inserted after the figure "£50." The period of training is not known. It seems to be contemplated to pay a lump sum of £50 for the whole course.

No.—

Miss Maud Karney applied some time ago for a special scholarship to enable her to undergo training in England. I believe she saw you about it.

She has been granted leave from 14th September to enable her to join a college at home and now tells me that she can't leave unless the scholarship is sanctioned, that in fact she would have to ask for postponement of her leave till another year unless she gets this scholarship. She does not even like to take a passage.

If you could let me have a wire that I may or may not tell her that the scholarship will be sanctioned it would be a great relief to her mind.

The file on the subject, which was circulated to the Hon'ble Sir John Atkinson for information, has just returned and is linked with this.

Perhaps the following telegram may be sent to Mr. Stone:—

"Your demi-official [of the] 30th August. Telegraphic application made to Government of India on [the] 28th idem for grant special allowance £50 to Miss Karney. Orders awaited."
