Question 15. (a) Will the Government be pleased to state whether any provision will be made in the budget for 1913-14 for maintaining two or more high schools for girls in this Presidency?

(b) Will the Government be pleased to state whether they have any intention to revise the rules relating to grants for girls' schools?

[Meeting of 27th September 1912.]

(a) Opening of high schools for girls. There are ^a at present only three secondary schools for girls maintained by Government, namely, those at Cannanore, Madras and Coimbatore. Of these the school at -- Cannanore is the only Government secondary school as such for girls, the other two ^{being} ~~are~~ attached to training schools. The Cannanore school was converted into a secondary school in 1908; and it became a complete secondary school in June 1911. The raising of the standard of the model school at Coimbatore to that of a secondary school was sanctioned only in 1911. The school at Madras is the one attached to the Presidency Training School for Mistresses. A fourth school is to be opened at Vizagapatam on 1st November next - vide G.O., No. 683 Rdl., dated 26th July 1912.

2. In connection with the programme for the expansion of female education in this Presidency -- recently framed by the D.P.I., at the request of the Government of India, the Director has proposed to open twelve new secondary schools for girls during the next ten years, besides raising the standards and grades of some of the existing girls' schools which may probably involve the conversion of some of them into secondary schools. The status of the existing Government Girls' school at Berhampur will be raised to that of a secondary school if the school which is to be opened at Vizagapatam proves a success. — Vide para 2 of the Director's letter No. 5053/11 dated 1st June 1912, pages 3 and 4 at (A). No orders have yet been passed on this programme which is still in the Financial department. The Director has not yet proposed to open any new secondary schools in 1913-14. It is now premature to ^a say definitely whether the Government will or will not open any new secondary schools in the next year. The additional Member may

3. (b). Revision of the Grant-in-Aid Code in relation to female education. A somewhat similar question was asked by the Hon'ble Mr. Balakrishna Aiyar at a meeting of the Legislative Council held on the 4th April 1911 and he was informed that the Government were "not prepared to amend the provisions of the Grant-in-aid Code dealing with female education". Vide G.O., No. 221, Educational, dated 12th April 1911. There are at present no proposals to amend the Code in relation to female education except in one small respect of making specific provision in article 33 of the Grant-in-aid Code to the effect that the amount of grant may be increased by the -- amount of fee income foregone with reference to rule 102 of the Educational Rules in respect of girls. This proposal has been circulated to His Excellency for approval. Apparently this represents the existing practice. The additional member may perhaps be given now a similar answer as on the last occasion.

4. The following ~~draft~~ answer is submitted for approval:-

"(a) The Government have sanctioned the opening of a secondary school for girls in -- Vizagapatam in November next. If this school proves a success, the question of opening ^{additional} further secondary schools for girls in other places ~~may~~ ^{will} be considered. ~~It is however premature to say~~ ^{The Govt are not prepared to say} at present whether any such schools will ~~actually~~ ^{be} opened in 1913-14.

(b) The Government do not propose to ^{at present} undertake any general revision of the rules in the Grant-in-aid Code relating to female education."
