From (Name) The Hon'ble Mr. D.W.G. Cowie, I.C.S., (Designation) Inspector-Genl. of Police, Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that the Government will be pleased to exempt F. Tampoe Philips from the provisions of Article I of the Public Service Notification for employment as an Inspector of Police. This candidate belongs to the Christian community and is a native of Ceylon. The social status of his family is very good, his father being a planter in Jaffna, Ceylon, and his uncle Mr. A. Mc G. C.
Tampoe, a member of the Indian Civil Service on the Madras Establishment.

He is 25 years of age, fairly intelligent and has a strong physique.

He has passed the Junior and Senior Local Examinations of the Cambridge University, held in Ceylon, and has a fair knowledge of Law. He can read and write Tamil, and has a colloquial knowledge of Telugu. The Superintendent of Police, Tinnevely, knows the applicant well and speaks very high of him. I have seen something of the young man and I consider that he is a very good candidate and is competent to hold the post of an Inspector of Police.

Service

In view of the fact that men of his type and family status seldom come forward for employment, I recommend that he be exempted from Article I of the Public Service Notification for employment as an Inspector of Police.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

T. S. S.

for Insp. - Genl. of Police.

SUBJECT:— Apply for an appointment in the Police Dept on behalf of his nephew.

Dear Mr. Davidson,

You may remember my writing to you some time last year about a young nephew of mine, who wished to enter the Madras Police as a Deputy Superintendent. You were kind enough to speak to Sir Harold Stuart about him. As he was not qualified under the examination-rules Sir Harold said they could not possibly exempt him, seeing that they get a sufficient number of qualified candidates applying each year.

As a result of this refusal, my nephew was offered a course of three years' professional education in Europe to qualify himself in anything he chooses. He did not like to decide on anything else until he had made certain that it was impossible for him to become an Indian Policeman, as he is so frightfully keen on it. He therefore applied to the I.G., and stated that he would be willing to enter the Department in the grade of an Inspector, if nothing better could be given him. Cowie replied that the examinations passed in Ceylon, not being Indian University Exams., do not qualify him for an appointment in India.

It was then arranged that he should go to one of the Inns of Court and read Law. Last week however Cowie came on tour here, and very kindly asked me whether it would be any here, still judging by English standards, they are poor qualifications. But he has been working under me for some years since, and really he is fairly well-educated.

He is very anxious to get in, and in spite of the fact that I have given him a fair insight into the life of the average Inspector, he does not seem a bit daunted.

He is a boy of splendid physique, and fairly good at games. He is an excellent big-game shot (he has already bagged his first tiger), a fair rider and fair swimmer. These are accomplishments acquired in India, but not the important ones.

I have told Cowie all this, ~~and~~ but I write this to you so that you may know the grounds of ~~his~~ his claim for admission. Unfortunately there is only one vacancy this year.

I am sorry to have to worry you with all this, but I have already told you of my position with regard to my sister's children.

Two nephews of mine have gone up to Cambridge this year—one to Clare, the other to Caius—the former being a Ceylon Government Scholar. They are the only Orientals in their Colleges, and the Clare Tutor has already told them not to mix with Indians when ~~they~~ they come into residence.

Things are going on fairly well here. I met Rajachar the other day in the train. Though he is justifiably proud of his achievements in Uthumalai, he seems rather 'fed up' with the place. I am quite looking forward to my leave—in October I hope—and Direct appointments of Inspectors may be made up to a maximum of 10 per cent of the vacancies. The qualification required for appointment as Inspector of Police are contained in P.Os 218 and 219 on pages 2-3 of G.O. 1085 Jndl., of the 6th Aug 1908. Attention is invited in this connection to H.M.'s note on page 11 of

G.O. 516 Edl., dated the 13th June 1912. (The candidate cannot be appointed direct as a Dy. Supdt.)
For orders.

It will be seen from ~~Art. 1~~ Art. 1(5) of the Public Service Notification that the Cambridge Senior Local Examinations are included among the qualifying tests prescribed for admission into Govt service. By G.O. No. 82 Edl., dated 19th Feb. 1910, Indian and Ceylonese candidates were excluded from the scope of this concession for the reasons given in Dr Bowine's letter dated 10th Feb. 1910. In view of the fact that the education of this young man was personally supervised by Mr Tampoe, ~~and~~ the objections urged by Dr Bourne do not perhaps quite

This is an exceptional case, & requires disposal on its individual merits. There can be no doubt, I think, from what Mr. Tampoe says, that the applicant is at least as well educated as most persons who do not require exemption. But if such appointments are to be very sparingly made, it is open to question whether ^{his qualities} he are exceptional enough to afford justification.

There is no justification at all to exempt a native of Ceylon in order that he may be specially appointed to a post which is much better filled by the promotion of a sub-inspector.

Please draft + at the same time let me know if this young man could appear as a private student for the matriculation examination at Allahabad, the Punjab or Bombay. Can he be exempt from either?

A draft order is submitted below for approval.

2. The Punjab University Calendar is not available here. It cannot therefore be said whether Mr. Tampoe Philips ~~can or cannot~~ appear for the Punjab Matriculation examination; but it seems that he can appear for either the Allahabad or the Bombay Matriculation examination under certain conditions.

3. Under Regulation 10 of the Allahabad University

govt. no. 3936-1

72.

University Calendar
(1911)

the Syndicate has power to admit a private candidate for the examination. The following are the conditions laid down in the regulations to render eligible a private candidate for the permission to appear:--

- (i) Applications should be made six months before the date fixed for the examination;
- (ii) The candidate should not have studied in any school or institution within the year last preceding the examination;
- (iii) He should have completed ^{his} sixteenth year at the date of the examination;
- (iv) A certificate from ~~the~~ private tutor ~~should~~ attached to the application; and
- (v) The application is forwarded through the divisional or circle inspector.

4. It would not apparently be difficult for Mr. ^{Philip} Tampoe to satisfy these conditions. The Matriculation examination of the Allahabad University is held on the 3rd Monday in the month of March, and applications have to be submitted by the first week of February.

5. In Bombay private candidates for the Matriculation examination are required to appear at ^{the} preliminary examination to be held at ^{any} the registered schools and submit the application through the headmaster of such school with the certificate that he considers the candidate a fit person as regards character and knowledge to be admitted to the examination. What the nature of this preliminary examination is and what conditions are attached to ~~the~~ this examinations are not known. The candidate for the Matriculation examination must have completed 16 years ~~xxxx~~ of age.

6. It would perhaps be much easier for Mr. Tampoe to pass the Bombay Matriculation examination, as no separate course of action as regards the exemption for private candidates is prescribed there. It will however be too late for him to appear for the examination this year. The examination begins on the 2nd Monday in the month of November and applications should be submitted by the 15th of October.

7. Submitted that the Inspector General of Police does not ^{appear to} possess powers of granting exemption from age bar ^(in respect of disqualification). Sanction for employing persons barred by age ^{as such} should be accorded only by Government. Though under G.O.No.985 Finl., dated 19th December 1890, the Inspector General of Police as head of a department has power to grant general exemption from age bar, it does not appear that he possesses similar powers in respect of the specific rule made by Government that every inspector must be over 21 and under 25 years of age. Please see G.O., No.1085 Judicial, dated 6th August 1911, and Police Order No.47.
