The D.P. does not clearly state the advantages of carrying out the work departmentally. Apparently the additional rooms are required urgently and therefore he desires to avoid the delay which is likely occur if the work is entrusted to the officers of the P.W.D. The only objections to the proposal are those mentioned in Sir George Forbes' note of 6-12-08 on p. 2 of notes to Govt. 189 W. of 10-2-09, namely, "want of executive and Command of Subordinates who can carry out work." But seeing that heads of departments are at liberty to obtain the professional supervision of the P.W.D., whenever that is necessary, the objection may be overlooked in this case.

Vide note on p. 3 of notes to Govt. 189 W. of 10-2-09

2. A draft order is submitted for approval. If approved it may issue with the Concurrence of the P.W.D.
