of six teachers on Rs.30, 20, 14, 12, 10 & 10, is inadequate for the reason that two teachers are required for the Infant standard and five for the other standards. She therefore recommends the employment of an additional teacher on Rs.10/- per mensem and I beg to support her recommendation.

I beg further to add that a temporary teacher on Rs.10/- per mensem was sanctioned for this school until the 31st March 1911 in G.O., No. 93 R. Educational, dated 15th March 1910, but that the services of this teacher were not continued after that date, as the strength of the school had fallen and as the seventh standard had ceased to exist.

2. The present scale of teachers as reported in para 2 of the Director of Public Instruction's letter has been compared with the registers of this office and is correct.

3. The rate of pay proposed for the teacher, viz., Rs.10 per mensem, does not exceed the lowest pay sanctioned for a teacher for similar duties in the permanent establishment.

4. There is no audit objection to the proposal being sanctioned by Government.

5. The proposed reappropriation requires the sanction of Government in the Financial Department.

A draft order sanctioning the employment of the temporary additional teacher asked for is submitted for approval. As there is no provision for the charge in the current year's budget and as the reappropriation statement submitted by the D.P.I. has to be sanctioned by the Financial Deptt the order may be sent to that Deptt for acceptance. 2. When the temporary assistant has been sanctioned provision for the charge will be included in the Budget estimate for 1913-14 which has just been received from the D.P.I.
