ENCLOSURES.

(1)

*Despatch—*from the Government of India, Finance Department (Salaries, Establishments, etc.—Education).

*To—*His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

*Dated—*Simla, the 20th June 1912.

*No.—*165.

We have the honour to invite a reference to paragraph 3 of Lord Morley's Public despatch No. 50, dated 10th March 1911, in which it was stated that the suggestion to raise the pay of certain headmasterships from Rs. 500-50-750 to Rs. 500-50-1,000 a month would to some extent prejudice the adoption of the decision on the general proposals for revising the scale of pay of the Indian Educational Service.

2. The Government of India have already addressed the Local Governments upon the general question and have received their replies. They have likewise formulated a scheme for the improvement of the pay of the Indian Educational Service. But they have felt themselves deterred under present circumstances from forwarding these proposals to your Lordship. Among the suggestions which it had been decided to place before your Lordship was the general raising of the pay of such Indian Educational Service posts of headmasterships to the higher scale which is now Rs. 500-50-1,000 a month and which we were about to propose should be enhanced in various ways. Pending the necessary delay in the decision of the general question we are desirous of recommending this item of our proposals to your Lordship's consideration for the reasons explained in the next paragraph.

3. We find that among sixteen officers who were recruited upon a lower scale of pay, apart from such existing incumbents as have put in only a few years' service, all with one exception have ultimately received promotion to the higher scale. The single exception was in the case of an officer whose attainments were held to be merely those of an elementary school teacher in England. Furthermore in the majority of these cases the advance from the lower to the higher scale has been achieved within five years and without delay in the zenith grade of the lower scale of pay. Only in five cases has there been delay; and in each of these five cases there was some special reason. It is obvious therefore that the scheme of sending out officers for the post of headmaster, etc., upon a lower scale of pay effects no financial saving whatever; and it appears uneconomical to recruit upon a lower scale of pay an officer who is almost certain to be promoted to a higher scale of pay.

4. A list of the posts which this proposal would affect is annexed. Only two of the posts, one in the Punjab and one in Burma, are vacant. We do not propose that any post should be filled by an officer on the higher scale of pay unless such action meets with the approval of the local Government since it is possible that an officer of lower qualifications may suffice for certain posts and that the local Government would not desire under any circumstances to promote him to a higher grade. We are accordingly ascertaining the wishes of the Governments of the Punjab and Burma in this matter and should they agree to our proposal we shall commend it to your Lordship in indenting for the officers concerned. In the present communication we place the general proposal before your Lordship in the hope that your Lordship will, pending the decision of the general case of the Indian Educational Service, agree to our indenting for headmasterships, etc., upon the higher scale of pay, wherever local Governments desire this course, without a special justification of the action taken in each individual case.

*Despatch—*from His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

*To—*His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council.

*Dated—*India Office, London, the 13th September 1912.

*No.—*175-Public.

I have considered in Council Your Excellency's despatch in the Finance Department, No. 165, dated 20th June 1912, regarding the pay attaching to headmasterships and certain kindred posts in the Indian Educational Service.

2. The pay of these appointments is at present Rs. 500-50-750 a month, except in two cases where it is Rs. 500-50-700 and one in which it is Rs. 500-30-650. You propose to raise these scales to Rs. 500-50-1,000 except in cases in which Local Governments may prefer to recruit candidates on the existing scale.

3. I sanction this proposal.

No. 970, EDUCATIONAL, 5TH NOVEMBER 1912.

The Director of Public Instruction will be informed that the Secretary of State has, at the instance of the Government of India, sanctioned the raising of the pay of headmasterships and certain other kindred posts in the Indian Educational Service from Rs. 500—50—750 to Rs. 500—50—1,000, except in cases in which local Governments may prefer to recruit candidates on the existing scale. The appointments affected in this presidency are the vice-principals of the Teachers' College, Saidapet, and the headmastership of the Central High School, Mercara.
