The Inspector of girls' schools, Central Circle, reports that there is no prospect of the services of a secondary grade Muhammadan mistress being available for the post of Headmistress in this school unless and unless the desirability of exempting Sayid Hussain Begam permanently from the examination rules in view of her confirmation as Headmistress with retrospective effect from 1 st July 1910 as she considers her suitable for the post. I beg to support her proposal. |
