Collector of Customs, Madras, C.R. No. 1241/1
dated 23rd September 1912.

Abstract:-

Submitting to Board for favourable consideration the petition from Ghulam Hussain a preventive officer for exemption from examination rules.

Reference.

Submitted to Government for favourable consideration.

2. In December 1911, the Preventive Officer presented a petition to the Collector requesting that he might be recommended

57A

Government for permanent exemption from the
and the Collector recommended his exemption as then constituted, was not prepared to Government the permanent exemption of the officer that passed candidates even among Mahomedans available for employment in the Preventive Service Custom House. In submitting the present Government, the Collector states that the petition is stronger than that of either of the Preventive Officers, Saiyid Abdur Razakh or Muhammad Haidar whose exemptions were sanctioned in G.O. No. 538 National and 766 Mis., Educational dated 18th June August 1912, respectively. He adds that the knowledge of the Preventive Officer is distinctly that he is an intelligent and painstaking officer for promotion to the higher grades of the Preventive Service. The Collector considers that it would be equitable to exempt the applicant and states that there are no Mahomedans at present permanently serving in the Preventive Service who could be held entitled to exemption.

Dear Col. Formby,

I am slightly acquainted with the applicant (Hussain) who wishes to better his prospects by joining the department, but I have made enquiries of one who knows his family and am satisfied of his honesty and respectability.

I hope his having not passed the Matric will not be a bar to his appointment as he belongs to the backward Mohor community and seems to deserve encouragement.

Yours sincerely
