READ—the following papers:—

I

Application from the authorities of the Wesleyan Mission Hindu girls' school at Sembium for a grant towards the cost of constructing a building for the school.

Ref. on Cur. No. 9290/12, dated 3rd December 1912.

Submitted to Government and recommended that a grant of Rs. 3,403 or half the cost of the work, whichever may be less, may be sanctioned.

2. No grant is proposed towards the cost of the carriage shed.

3. The Grant-in-Aid Code does not explicitly provide for grant being given for teachers' quarters, but such provision is generally desirable, especially in the case of girls' schools.

A. G. BOURNE,
Director of Public Instruction.

Note by the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, No. 839 C, dated 28th January 1913.

The Director of Public Instruction submits for sanction an estimate amounting to Rs. 7,038 and a plan for constructing the Wesleyan Mission Hindu girls' school at Sembium, Saidapet taluk, Chingleput district.

2. The plan and estimate have been scrutinized in the Chief Engineer's office and the following alterations have been made:—

(1) Providing brick in lime mortar instead of brick in clay for foundations and basement of outhouses.

(2) Increasing the scantling of the verandah wall purlin of main building from $2\frac{1}{2}'' \times 4''$ to $3'' \times 5''$.

3. By these alterations the total amount of the estimate has been increased from Rs. 7,038 to Rs. 7,100.

4. The Superintending Engineer should satisfy himself about the suitability of the foundations.

5. It is recommended that the necessity of the provision of iron bars for windows may be re-considered.

6. If the gate is intended to admit vehicles, it is recommended that it should be 10' 0" wide instead of 8' 0" and that it should consist of two leaves instead of one.

7. If the school authorities intend to add a second storey to the main building as foreshadowed by the correspondent in his application for aid, the sections of the girders should be increased from $12'' \times 5''$ at 32 lb. to $15'' \times 5''$ at 42 lb. and the teak joists should be placed 1' 3" apart instead of 1' 6". The extra cost entailed by this alteration would be about Rs. 150.

8. With these remarks the estimate as altered by the Chief Engineer amounting to Rs. 7,100 is recommended for sanction.

C. A. SMITH,
Chief Engineer, P.W.D.

Order—No. 110, Educational, dated 11th February 1913.

The estimates for the construction of a building for the Wesleyan Mission school for Hindu girls at Sembium include provision for a carriage shed and teacher's quarters not forming an adjunct to a hostel. As the Grant-in-Aid Code does not admit of the payment of grants towards expenditure on these objects, the amounts of Rs. 230 and Rs. 490 provided in the estimates on that account must be eliminated for the purpose of calculating the building grant.

2. The sole object of allowing a terraced roof for the main building being the ultimate addition of a second storey, the Government expect the management to strengthen the roof as suggested in paragraph 7 of the Chief Engineer's note read above. To this end a sum of Rs. 150 will be added to the estimate.

3. Towards the admissible estimated cost of Rs. 6,530 as revised by the Chief Engineer, the Government are pleased to sanction a grant not exceeding one-half of the actual expenditure, nor Rs. 3,265, subject to the following conditions:—

(i) that in carrying out the work the suggestions of the Chief Engineer in his note read above are adopted; and

(ii) that all the conditions prescribed by the Grant-in-Aid Code are duly complied with.

4. On the above conditions being duly fulfilled, the grant bill be paid as funds become available.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

The estimate, as altered by Public Works Department, amounts to Rs. 7,100, of which Rs. 230 is for a carriage shed. Vide rule 50, page 10 of G.O. No. 370, dated 1st May 1912. As no grant is payable towards the cost of the carriage shed the cost of this, viz.,

Rs. 230 may be deducted from the total estimate. The estimate also provides for the construction of teacher's quarters at a cost of Rs. 490. According to the rules of the Grant-in-Aid Code a grant towards this item too is not specifically provided for.

The principle of granting free quarters to mistresses employed in Government girls' schools in necessary cases has been accepted by the Government of India. Please see G.O. No. 930, Educational, dated 18th October 1912. But the Director of Public Instruction considers that a grant is desirable in this case and it may be sanctioned. A draft order sanctioning a half grant of the total cost of the building, excluding that of the carriage shed is submitted for approval.

C.R.—2-2-13.

2. In the last page of the application the correspondent of the school says that the building is to have a terraced roof so as to allow of the addition of a second storey if found necessary later on. With reference to this the Chief Engineer suggests certain alterations in the size of the girders and in the position of the joists. If these alterations are to be carried out the estimate would be increased by Rs. 150. This amount has not been added to the estimate in calculating the half grant. If it should be so added, the grant may be raised by Rs. 75.

S.K.—1-2-13.

When a terraced roof with the only object of building a second storey subsequently is allowed, the alterations suggested by the Chief Engineer should also naturally be adopted, and the grant increased correspondingly.

C. RAMANUJACHARI—1-2-13.

The last sentence of sub-paragraph (i) of article 51 of the Grant-in-Aid Code seems explicitly to prohibit any grant for the provision of residences for teachers except as an adjunct to a hostel or boarding house. The office-note says that paragraph 20 of the estimate comprises Rs. 490 for teachers' quarters; as the estimate pages bear various numbers I cannot trace the reference, but if the statement is correct the grant ought to be reduced by the elimination of Rs. 490, the reason should be stated in the draft Government Order and the opportunity should be taken to refer explicitly to the fact that Government expect the management to strengthen the first floor as suggested in paragraph 7 of the Chief Engineer's note; that point is too important to be left to implication.

L. DAVIDSON—3-2-13.

A revised draft order is submitted for approval.
