Reference from the Board of Revenue (Separate Revenue), C.R. No. 2036/Salt, dated 2nd November 1912.

The Hon'ble Mr. R. C. C. CARR.

Read—the following papers:—

(1)

Letter—from A. S. A. WESTHOFF, Esq., I.C.S., Collector of Customs, Madras.
To—the Secretary to the Commissioner of Salt, Abkari and Separate Revenue.
Dated—the 28th September 1912.
No.—C.R. 1255/12.

ABSTRACT.—Submitting to Board of Revenue, Separate Revenue, for favourable consideration, applications from preventive officers of the Madras Custom House praying for exemption from passing Test E in a second language.

(2)

Board's reference thereon and reply thereto.

Reference—C.R. No. 2036/Salt, dated 2nd November 1912.

The Board requests that Government will be pleased to exempt Preventive officers in the Madras Custom House from passing Test E in a second language. In 1894, when this grade of officers was first created, Mr. W. Austin, the then Collector of Customs, recommended that Preventive officers need not necessarily be passed men. The Board accepted the recommendation but stated that exemptions should be obtained from Government as occasions arise—vide Board's Proceedings No. 221, dated 11th June 1894, disposed of in G.O. No. 632, dated 31st August 1894. Since then Government have been pleased to exempt several officers not only from the examination rules but also from Test E or the Translation Test. The present Collector of Customs reports that these officers can discharge their duties quite efficiently with their knowledge of English and one local vernacular and that the necessity for knowledge of a second language is not felt. It is stated that they never have occasion to speak even Telugu or to handle documents in Telugu or in any other vernacular of which they are ignorant. The only part of a Preventive officer's work that brings him into contact with persons unacquainted with English or the vernacular of the district is the examination of passengers' baggage and no difficulty has hitherto been experienced by them through ignorance of a vernacular. It may be added that the case of these officers is similar to that of clerks, as they are very seldom transferred out of Madras, and the Board therefore recommends that the exemption from passing Test E in a second language given to clerks may also be extended to Preventive officers in the Madras Custom House.

2. A draft notification making the necessary alterations in the examination rules is enclosed.

H. H. F. M. TYLER,
Secretary.

To the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, with a draft notification in duplicate.
