The question raised in the Residents letter is the grant of three months' privilege leave to Mrs. Engler on her reversion to the British Service. The A.G. reports that Mrs. Engler was eligible for three months' privilege leave on the 26th July 1912, the date of her transfer to foreign service but does not say whether Mrs. Engler can be granted the leave on her reversion to the British service. It is not known whether the period spent on foreign service is regarded as an interruption of duty for privilege leave. The A.G. may it is submitted be requested to advise on this point.

T.A. Submitted that no interruption 30.1.13 to duty will be caused by foreign service. Arts. 253 to 259 of the C.F. which enumerate the various "interruptions of duty" for purposes of privilege leave do not mention foreign service as one such. Art. 779 ~~does~~ ^{states} speaks of privilege leave during foreign service, permitted privilege leave earned in British service before transfer, being also availed of and proportionate leave allowances for such period paid. Art. 789 authorizes an official when he returns from foreign service "to resume the position in which

Art. 781 ~~states~~ says that if he takes privilege leave after return to British service he will be entitled to the full share of his leave allowance for the period earned before transfer.

The case should, if it is submitted, be now referred to the D.P. as to whether the leave may be granted ~~in~~ ^{for} reversion.

His deputation at Hyderabad is for two years from July 1912.

21/12

~~As the case is referred to the D.P. for consideration~~ - apparently there is no account objection to his. Engrs taking the privilege ^{now} on his return to D.P. but if he does not come back until July 1914 it is impossible to fore. cut the leave or so. He can then begin leave. Possibly his reference means that his Engrs has been of returning earlier to British service than July 1914.

D.P. had better see us before he goes to

G.O. No. 31 of 4.2.13.

It would probably be more convenient to grant Mr. Engrs three months' privilege leave immediately on reversion than later, whenever that reversion takes place, since existing arrangements could continue.
