Vacations in Government Colleges.

Fixing the dates for the closing and re-opening of the Government Colleges for the summer vacations of 1913 and 1914 and for the Christmas vacation of 1913-1914.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Sir ALFRED BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., K.C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—Madras, the 5th February 1913.

No.—Ref. on Car. 326/13.

With reference to G.O. No. 615, Educational, dated 19th September 1906, I have the honour to submit for the sanction of Government a statement showing the dates proposed for the closing and re-opening of the various Government Arts and Professional Colleges in this Presidency for the vacations of 1913-1914.

2. In the statement referred to above I have included proposals for the summer vacation of 1914 also, as it is obviously convenient that the date of the beginning of the summer vacation of 1914 (or what is the same thing the date of the end of the second term of 1913-1914) should be indicated in the College Calendars for 1913-1914 which should issue about July 1913. I can see no possibility of inconvenience arising from settling the dates of the long vacation for 1914 so far in advance, and I trust that Government will approve my proposal to do so in which case dates for the vacations will always be proposed some fifteen months in advance.

3. The date proposed for the closing of the Law College for the summer vacation is later than usual owing to the fact that the University Examinations in Law commence only on the 28th April and the High Court Pleaders' Examination on the 5th of May 1913.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 126, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 12TH FEBRUARY 1913.

[SUBJECT.—Vacations in Government colleges.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 5th February 1913, No. R.O.C. 326/13.

The Director of Public Instruction's proposal to fix now the dates of closing and reopening of colleges for the summer vacation of 1914 may, in the circumstances explained by him, be approved.

2. Except in the case of the Law College the periods of vacation proposed agree generally with those of last year. The Law College had a summer vacation of 94 days in 1912. According to the Director of Public Instruction's present proposal the summer vacation of 1913 and 1914 will last for 85 days. The date of reopening of the College of Engineering has been fixed with special reference to the recent order of Government that the college should reopen after the summer vacation on the same day as other colleges.

3. There is a slight discrepancy in the statement forwarded by the Director of Public Instruction. The date of reopening of the Mangalore college after the summer vacation of 1914 has been put down as 14th June 1914 (Saturday). 14th June 1914 is a Sunday. Apparently the date should be 13th June 1914 (Saturday). With this alteration the dates proposed by the Director of Public Instruction may be approved.

4. A draft order is submitted for approval.

S.K.—8-2-13.

C. RAMANUJACHARI—10-2-13.

Saturday seems a curious day to reopen, but I suppose the Director of Public Instruction knows what he is about.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or referencee concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
