G.O. No. 953, Educational, dated 30th October 1912.

ABSTRACT.—Directing, with reference to the decision of the Government of Bombay, the publication in the Fort St. George Gazette of a notification prohibiting the appointment after 31st July 1913 of the matriculates of the Bombay University to posts in the superior service of this Presidency.

II

Letter—from P. V. RAMA RAO, Clerk, Taluk office, Palmaner, Chittoor district.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—Palmaner, the 7th January 1913.

With reference to the Government Order No. 13, Miscellaneous, dated 3rd January 1913, I humbly beg to state that I have come to know that Bombay matriculates of 1910 and 1911 are not eligible for superior service after 31st July 1913. But I humbly beg to be supplied with a reply for another doubt of mine for the same at an early date. Are Bombay matriculates holding appointments on Rs. 20 substantial before 31st July 1913, eligible for further promotion? And are they qualified then? I humbly beg to be excused for the trouble I cause.

Order—No. 127, Educational, dated 12th February 1913.

With reference to his letter, dated 7th January 1913, P. V. Rama Rao will be informed that matriculates of the Bombay University who hold permanent appointments in Government service on the 31st July 1913 will be eligible for promotion to posts carrying a salary of more than Rs. 20 per mensem provided they are otherwise qualified. The Commissioner for Government Examinations will be requested to insert a note to this effect in the draft notification called for in G.O. No. 953, Educational, dated 30th October 1912.

2. In the meanwhile the following notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette :—

NOTIFICATION.

Notification No. 127, dated 30th October 1912, published on page 687 of Part I-B. of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 3rd December 1912, will not affect the promotion to posts carrying a salary of more than Rs. 20 per mensem, of persons who have passed the Bombay Matriculation examination and who hold permanent appointments in Government service on the 31st July 1913, provided that they are otherwise qualified.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 127, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
12TH FEBRUARY 1913.

[SUBJECT.—Regarding the eligibility for promotion to posts carrying a salary of more than Rs. 20 per mensem of Bombay matriculates who are holding substantive appointments in Government service on the 31st July 1913.]

Petition from M.R.Ry. P. V. Rama Rao Avargal, dated 7th January 1913.

The notification issued with G.O. No. 953, Educational, dated 30th October 1912, prohibits the employment after 31st July 1913 of Bombay matriculates in posts in the superior service of this Presidency the sanctioned pay of which exceeds Rs. 20 per mensem. For employment to posts carrying a pay up to Rs. 20 no general educational qualification is now prescribed. The petitioner, P. V. Rama Rao, enquires whether a Bombay matriculate who is now holding a substantive appointment on Rs. 20 per mensem will be eligible for promotion after 31st July 1913. As the minimum pay of clerks in several offices is only Rs. 20 per mensem several Bombay matriculates may happen to be getting Rs. 20 on the 31st July 1913 and in accordance with the strict letter of the notification issued with G.O. No. 953, Educational, dated 30th October 1912 these men will be debarred from promotion to posts carrying a pay of more than Rs. 20 from 1st August next. Bombay matriculates who are in the public service on or before the 31st July 1913 have been declared to be eligible to appear for special tests irrespective of the pay they may be getting; and hence many men who get only a pay of Rs. 20 may qualify themselves for promotion by passing special tests. It will then be a real hardship if these men are not allowed to rise above Rs. 20. In these circumstances it is submitted that it appears to be necessary to make some such ruling as that in note 1 to the Public Service notification which was put in, so as to remove similar hardship in the case of middle-school first-class men, who were in permanent employ on the 30th June 1894, the date from which these candidates were declared to be ineligible for promotion to posts carrying a pay of more than Rs. 15 per mensem (now Rs. 20). The Commissioner for Government Examinations may be consulted u.o. on the point.

There is also the question whether Bombay matriculates who hold only acting appointments on the 31st July 1913 will also be eligible for promotion to posts above Rs. 20. It is for consideration whether these men should be allowed any concession.

S.K.—28-1-13.

C. RAMANUJACHARI—1-2-13.

The successive enquiries which crop up make one almost regret that the Public Service notification was ever tampered with last October in G.O. No. 953, Educational, dated 30th October 1912; I do trust this is the last conundrum.

We must, of course, consult the Commissioner for Government Examinations u.o.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER FOR GOVT. EXAMINATIONS.

I agree with the office-note above except that I doubt the necessity for so much tenderness for the holders of acting appointments.

A draft order is submitted for approval. Persons who hold acting appointments need not, it is submitted, be allowed any concession. The question was raised so as to avoid a possible separate reference later on.
