Egmore, Madras.

To

The Director of Public Instruction
Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge an application through you and the Inspector, to the Director of Public Instruction, Bihar and Orissa, and beg to request that you will be pleased to recommend me for the appointment of Principal of the Ravenshaw Girls' School, Cuttack, and arrange to have my services transferred from this Government to that of Bihar and Orissa.

I particularly ask you to endorse my statements. After my very arduous life of 20 years as an Inspector of the lower grade, it would be cruel to send me back to the same work on the same grade.

4 5
I think I have proved beyond all doubt that I can do the work both of Inspectress and Superintendent, so that the work of Principal of a single school is quite within my capacity, and I most earnestly request that you will kindly recommend me.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
J. Patterson
