GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. H. SHARP, C.I.E., Joint Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education (Education).

To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Dated—Delhi, the 19th December 1912.

No.—59-C.D.

I am directed to forward for the information of the Governor in Council a copy of the correspondence noted in the margin regarding the grant of powers to Local Governments and the Government of India to confirm in permanent appointments officers recruited in England by the Secretary of State for temporary vacancies in the Indian Educational service.

2. With reference to paragraph 3 of the Secretary of State's despatch, dated the 1st November 1912, I am to request that, when in future a temporary Indian Educational service officer is confirmed in the service, the Local Government concerned may arrange for the preparation and execution in India on behalf of the Secretary of State of the usual agreement.

ENCLOSURES.

Extract from the despatch to the Secretary of State, No. 21, Education, dated Simla, the 15th August 1912.

We think, however, that although the practice based upon existing orders has hitherto been to refer to your Lordship all such cases of confirmation it would be a convenient measure of decentralisation and would lead to no undesirable results if Local Governments were permitted, on the occurrence of a permanent vacancy, to confirm temporary officers appointed to the Indian Educational service in England by the Secretary of State, provided that the existing vacancy were such as to render the confirmation of the temporary officer advisable with reference to his qualifications.

3. As a corollary to this proposal we would likewise suggest that the Government of India should have power in cases where a temporary officer appointed by the Secretary of State is serving in one province and a suitable vacancy occurs in another to transfer him to the latter province and to confirm him in the Indian Educational service.

Despatch—from His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

To—His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council.

Dated—India Office, London, the 1st November 1912.

No.—224, Public.

I have considered in Council the proposal contained in the Educational letter of your Excellency's Government, No. 21, dated 15th August 1912, that Local Governments should be permitted, on the occurrence of a permanent vacancy in the Indian Educational service, to confirm officers appointed temporarily to that service by the Secretary of State, providing that the existing vacancy is such as to render the confirmation of such an officer desirable with reference to his qualifications.

2. Under the existing procedure, proposals for the confirmation of individual officers who have been temporarily employed are submitted for the approval of the Secretary of State. I agree with your Excellency's Government that it would be a convenient measure of decentralisation, and would lead to no undesirable results, if Local Governments were empowered to grant confirmation in a permanent appointment after approved service in a temporary vacancy, and if a similar power were exercised by the Government of India when it is desired to transfer such an officer to a permanent appointment in another province.

3. I accordingly sanction the proposals contained in your Government's letter. It will be convenient if a report of each permanent appointment made by a Local Government or by your Excellency's Government is sent to me. I am, however, advised that there is no reason why the agreements on confirmation of temporary appointments should not be prepared and executed on my behalf in India, in virtue of Statutes 22 and 23 Vict., c. 41, ss. 1 and 2, and 33 and 34 Vict., c. 59, s. 2. The adoption of this procedure will obviate the delay incidental on the existing practice.
