"Steamer, Persia."

2. The next thing that can be done is to try to catch Mr. Mayhew at Aden. A telegram or if there is sufficient ^{time} a letter by tomorrow's mail may be sent to Mr. Mayhew at Aden. For this purpose we must know when the P. & O. Steamer "Persia" will reach Aden & when the mail steamer which leaves Bombay on the Saturday evening will reach Aden. The local P. & O. Agents, Messrs Best & Co ^{may} ~~will~~ be able to give this information & the following telephonic message may it is submitted be sent to them:-

From the Secy to Govt. Edl. Dept.

To Messrs Best & Co, Madras

Would you ^{kindly} ~~please~~ let me know when the P. & O. Steamer Persia which left England on 6th instant will reach Aden & when the mail

From Mrs. Mayhew dated 16-2-13

Please see Mrs. Mayhew's reply telegram on page 4 of current file - He says to the information contained in this office telegram, no. 18 dated 13th instant on p. 2 ^{is insufficient} ~~supra~~ This telegram contains all the ~~necessary~~ information given by the ~~telegram~~ from the Govt. of I. at (1). It is not understood what further information Mrs. Mayhew requires - It is for consideration whether another telegram ~~now~~ to Mrs. Mayhew may be sent to Bombay and if so, what further information should be given him.

TK 17/2/13 ~~It~~ It is not possible to anticipate what Mr. Mayhew wants. Perhaps a telegram may be sent to him at Bombay enquiring what additional information is required. It is not known whether ~~is a possibility~~ Mr. Mayhew will take it at Bombay to reach Madras.

Q 17/2/13 About he arrived
Shew J. M. J.

1825

I think there will be time enough when Mr Mayhew arrives in Madras. The special urgency existed only when it was possible that Mr Mayhew might do the Chief's College business and so go north direct from Bombay. He will now be in the Residence for some weeks before his appointment in the N.W.F.P. falls vacant.

My dear Davidson

I enclose here from my pen declining the offer of the Directorship
in the North-West Frontier Province.

There is no other officer of this department who could be suggested for it.

Yours sincerely

February 25th 1913

Dear Sir Alfred Brown -

I write to confirm my telephone message of yesterday's date announcing that I am unable to accept the officiating Directorship of the North West Frontier Province. My decision is due entirely to reasons of a domestic nature. I am very sorry that I cannot take advantage of so good an offer and wish to express my thanks to those who have been responsible for it.

Yours sincerely
