The appointment of a temporary officer to act for Mr. Allen Decoded ~~the~~ the telegram runs:-

" From Secretary of State for India to Governor of Madras, Edl., Leg. I & M. Departments
Your despatch No. one, dated January 9th. Temporary Professor of history, Presidency College, Madras.
Candidate has been selected; could leave for India early next month. Medical board recommend this.
Arrival in July next. Contrary to orders; see my Public despatch No. three dated 29th January 1909. Can you employ him between April and July.
Please telegraph reply as quickly as possible "

2. The Secretary of State's despatch No. 3 Public, dated 29th January 1909 referred to in the telegram will be found printed with G.O. No.
122 Public, dated 22nd February 1909. It says that except in special cases which will require the Secretary of State's special sanction, no newly appointed officer will be allowed so to time his departure as to arrive in India between the 1st April and the 1st October. The present case, it is submitted is a special one. Mr. Allen having been granted leave in continuation of the summer vacation of the Presidency College, the person selected to act as Professor of History during his absence, must be present at the reopening of the College after the vacation on the 28th June 1913 or very soon after. It has been reported that there is no officer in the Indian or Provincial Educational Service who could take Mr. Allen's place. It may also be noted that from ~~amongst~~ ^{about the same time} ~~three~~ ^{other} members of the Indian Educational Service will go on leave - Messrs.
Jones, Allen and Duncan - and a separate communication

[It would have been better if the person selected had been made in Keppel to the despatch, but it was unavoidable, the Secretary of the college could not stop because the report it broke.
I am making a collection of the material, and a check.]

communication is being addressed to the Government of India enquiring whether there is available xxx any other officer who could take the acting appointments.

3. The D.P.I. may be asked to state whether the person selected by the Secretary of State can be usefully employed between April and July.

the person selected might be appointed to act as Headmaster of the Central High School Mercara in succession to Mr. White. I should not be able to leave early in April and he perhaps may be able to leave on 28th June or so. I should not consider him usefully to employ. There would be two changes in the Mercara School

Es: & the Chief Commissioner of Cong

who naturally resists the Mercara High School being kept a convenience of in this way instead of one. from the point of view of health I should think there is little to choose between joining at Mercara in April and making in July. I am the worst fever I ever had in Cong in my life and both White and I are having because he is a little lower with constant fever. It seems to me that the case is a general one for 1913.

ES

H.E. to Parnan.

It seems impossible to make a communique of the Mercantile High School in this way without first consulting the Chief Commr. (Sir Hugh Dalg) who wd. not be likely to agree. I know Commr & Mercantile - I was for 3 1/2 years stationed there as Commissioner - and have no doubt that the arrangement wd. be detrimental to public interest.

2. We do not want a substitute until July, & as for medical grounds I find it very difficult to accept the proposition that to arrive in Madras at the end of March or beginning of April is more healthy than to do so in July. The new comers wd. necessarily be confronted with the hot weather (April, May - June) without any gradual introduction to it. By July the hot weather is over.

3. I also write that Govt expect they cannot immediately employ the temporary Professor of history between July & April and July. Nor can they recommend that any officer shd. be ~~required to face a hard rain~~ ~~and~~ required to face a hard rain before the immediate arrival in India.

A draft telegram codified is submitted for approval.

2 In despatch no. 1, dated 9th January 1913, the Secy of State was generally informed that Mr. Allen ~~proposed~~ "being" to proceed on ~~leave~~ furlough for a "period of eighteen months." As the period of leave has since been definitely fixed in G.O. No. 63, No. 1, dated 28th February 1913 as seventeen months & twenty five days from 28th June 1913, it seems desirable to intimate this fact to the Secy of State to avoid any future difficulty in regard to the period of engagement of the temporary officer. Subject to approval an addition has been made to the draft telegram.
