Sd,

In continuation of my letters R. C. No. 3091/12, dated 12th April 1912 and 8th February 1913, I have the honour to request that Captain G. H. Phillips and Mr. N. Nadel may be granted an honorarium of Rs. 100/- and Rs. 50/- respectively, for having drawn up the ^{revised} syllabuses for the Government Technical Examinations in Tailoring. Before accepting the work they were promised payment of the above fees, which, it ~~was~~ thought, could be sanctioned by me, but the Accountant-General considers that the sanction of Government is necessary as these --- gentlemen are not connected with the Educational Department.

2. The charge can be met from the contingent allotment for my office for the current year.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

your most obedient servant,

C. No. 221 From the D.P.D. No 221/12, dated 15-3-1913.

SUBJECT. Payment of honoraria to certain gentlemen.

Art. 72(b) will have no application to Mr. Nadel who is a private gentleman.

The Director of Public Instruction's letter has not been submitted through the Accountant-General and it is not clear what the latter's objection exactly is. Presumably his contention is that the power vested in the D.P.D. by art. 72(b) of the C.S.R. is limited to cases in which persons employed in the Educational department alone are concerned. If that is so, the contention is valid. For, of the two gentlemen whose case is now under reference, Capt. Phillips is the Master Tailor, Army Clothing Factory and Mr. Nadel is on the staff of Messrs. Moors & Co. (a private firm).

2. In any case there appears to be no objection to the Govt.'s sanctioning the honoraria proposed. The amount is to be met from the contingent allotment of the Director's office for the current year. The acceptance of Finance is not necessary.

3. A draft order is submitted for approval.
