Letter—from F. DEWSBURY, Esq., B.A., LL.B., Registrar, University of Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—Senate House, the 11th March 1913.

No.—1019.

In G.O. No. 518, Educational, dated 19th August 1904, and G.O. No. 361, Educational, dated 26th May 1905, the Government sanctioned the following establishment for the Madras University library :—

	RS.
One assistant librarian on	50 a month.
One attendant on	15 "
Two peons on	7 "

The salary of the peons was subsequently raised to Rs. 8 per mensem.

In March 1910, on the application of the Library Committee, the Syndicate sanctioned the appointment of a temporary clerk on Rs. 20 per mensem, specially in connection with the preparation of the library catalogue. The Library Committee, being convinced of the fact that the work of the library has since grown to such an extent as to need the permanent employment of an additional clerk, has now recommended to the Syndicate that the temporary appointment be converted to a permanent one on a salary of Rs. 25 per mensem, and that the temporary clerk be appointed to the new post with effect from the 3rd February 1913, the date of its resolution. The Syndicate approves of the recommendation, and I am accordingly directed to request that the Government will be pleased to sanction the permanent increase to the staff by the appointment of an additional clerk on Rs. 25 per mensem with effect from the 3rd February 1913.

Order—No. 269, Educational, dated 2nd April 1913.

The Government sanction the proposal of the Syndicate to employ a clerk on Rs. 25 per mensem in the office of the University library with effect from 3rd February 1913.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman number I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman number (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
