21 CROMWELL ROAD,

LONDON, S.W.

21 CROMWELL ROAD,
LONDON, S.W.

THIS short account of the activities connected with the building at 21 Cromwell Road, S.W. is intended not only to provide information for Indian Students and for those directly concerned with their education in this country, but also for a wider circle of friends whose co-operation, it is hoped, may be secured.

Residence for Students.

There are seven bedrooms, which can accommodate seventeen students. Each bedroom is fitted with a gas fire. There are four bathrooms, and it is possible for residents to obtain hot or cold water at any time. The accommodation is meant primarily for students newly arrived from India, and during the past two years hundreds of students have found their first "home" at 21 Cromwell Road. It has also been found convenient for short stays by those who have to come to London at odd times for examination and other purposes. The charges are 24/6 a week or 3/6 a day, which includes, lodging, breakfast and dinner, but not lunch or tea. The former is supplied daily according to a regular tariff, and the usual charge for a plain tea is 4d. There are no other additional charges save for the gas fires in the bedrooms. Applications for residence should be addressed to "The Warden," 21 Cromwell Road, S.W.

Northbrook Society.

This society has its club rooms in the house. They consist of a Library, a Reading Room, Billiard Room and Secretary's Office. In the Reading Room will be found newspapers, both Indian and English, and many leading periodicals and Reviews. The Library contains a choice selection of books on Eastern matters and also on general literature. Special mention should be made of the collection of books dealing with the East, and particularly with India.

The Club is open both to Indian and to English Members. The ordinary subscription is £1 1s. 0d. per annum, but this is reduced to 10/6 for Indian students who join when they are under 21 years of age.

NATIONAL INDIAN ASSOCIATION DRAWING ROOM.

Members can obtain lunch or tea on the premises, and (if due notice is given) dinner. The charge for dinner is 1/6.

Those who stay in the house on their first arrival from India are allowed the privileges of membership of the Club for a period of two weeks free of charge.

The Secretary, L. CRANMER BYNG, ESQ., J.P., is at 21 Cromwell Road every day save Saturdays and Sundays, when his representative can be seen, and will be pleased to give any further information about the Club.

National Indian Association.

The Headquarters of the Association are also in the house, and the Hon. Secretary, Miss E. J. BECK resides on the premises. Social gatherings and lectures are held once or twice a month, to which members are invited. Also outings and excursions to various places of interest are arranged from time to time. The Association publishes a monthly magazine, which is supplied to all members and associates. It contains, among other things, reports of successes in examinations in Great Britain obtained by Indian students.

The Drawing Room of the Association is open for the use of members. There will be found there, various games and a piano. If members so desire they can arrange for tea to be served there for themselves and their friends. The cost of membership is 5/- per annum for Associates, who must be students Indian or English, and £1 1s. 0d. per annum for others. Country members can join for 10/-. The Association has branches in India, and definitely supports Social Reform and Female Education in India, besides promoting social intercourse between Indians and English in this country. Miss BECK will be pleased to welcome new members, and students will always find her ready to help them in any difficulties.

Bureau of Information.

Three rooms in the house are assigned to Mr. ARNOLD and his assistants. A supply of information is kept, which is constantly increasing and becoming more valuable as experience grows, and refers to all branches of study likely to be followed by Indian students in Great Britain. Every student who cannot make all his arrangements complete before coming to this country is invited to call on Mr. T. W. ARNOLD, the Educational Adviser, as soon as possible after his arrival. In many cases initial difficulties have thus been overcome, and in general, students will find that it is immensely to their advantage to get everything clear and definite at the beginning of their course, instead of waiting until they discover that a false start has been made. They will find that the Educational Adviser has at his disposal information not only concerning studies, but concerning families, lodgings, etc., and many minor matters which go to make up a student's life. The offices of the Bureau are open on week days from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. except Saturdays, when they close at 1 p.m. Mr. ARNOLD will be pleased to see students between the hours of 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. and 4.30 p.m. At other times students may see one of his assistants, or may see Mr. ARNOLD by special appointment.

J. M. CAMPION, ESQ., M.I.C.E., the special adviser for Engineering Students, attends every Wednesday afternoon from 2.30 p.m. to 4.30 p.m., and can be seen by Engineering Students then.

The Law Library.

A recent addition has been a Law Library, which is being gradually completed and contains books specially useful both for students going through their course for the Bar in London, and also for those who desire to make a preliminary study of Indian Law before returning to India. This Library is intended to serve as a working

NORTHBROOK LIBRARY.

Library for students residing in London, and it is hoped that books on other subjects than Law will be added. It is open to all Indian students. Books must be read in the Library itself, where provision is made for study. It will be open for reading every weekday (except Saturday) from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m.

The Lecture Hall.

The Hall in which the Library is housed, can also be used for Lectures or Social gatherings of a non-political nature that concern India, or are arranged to include Indian students residing in England. Applications for the use of the Hall must be made to the Secretary of the Managing Committee. No charge is made for the use of the Hall, and if necessary, refreshments can be provided at very moderate charges.

Friday Evenings.

Every Friday evening MISS BECK and MR. CHESHIRE give an informal "At Home" from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. in the Drawing Room of the National Indian Association. Indian students are welcome, whether they are members of the Association or not. The gatherings are not large; they are perfectly informal, and they are designed to provide an opportunity of more intimate social intercourse between Indian and English students and others, than is possible in the larger gatherings.

Garden and Tennis Courts.

Badminton can be played in the small garden behind the house, and quite near by in Pelham Street are two asphalt Tennis Courts, which have been leased by the Managing Committee for the use of students. The courts are quite private, although so centrally situated, and there is a small pavilion on the ground where members may change and keep their outfits.

The rates of subscription for those who wish to use the courts are :—

Distressed Indian Students Aid Committee.

A Sub-Committee of the above Committee meets every week at 21 Cromwell Road, under the chairmanship of SIR JAMES WILSON, K.C.S.I. During the past two years the Committee has been able to help scores of students who have been in real financial difficulty through one cause or another. Any applications for assistance should be addressed to the Hon. Sec., D.I.S.A.C., 21 Cromwell Road, S.W. It should be clearly understood that the Committee does not grant "scholarships."

All communications about "residence" or other matters in regard to the house that do not directly concern either of the societies, should be addressed to the Warden, 21 Cromwell Road.
