The question & answer as finally approved stand as follows -

Subsidies to local bodies for new elementary schools.

Question 50. Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table a statement showing the number of elementary schools started in each district in rural and urban areas in 1910–11, 1911–12 and 1912–13 and the contribution paid to each district board and municipality from Provincial funds during the said years in regard to the maintenance of the schools?

Answer 50—

No contribution was paid to local bodies during 1910–11 for the opening of new schools and no information is readily available showing in which districts or municipalities schools were opened, but the totals are shown in Statements Nos. 65 and 96 in the supplemental statistics published with the report on public instruction for the year, namely, under local boards 68 boys' schools and six girls' schools and in municipalities ten boys' schools and one girls' school. Statements * are laid on the table giving full details for the year 1911–12 and information as to the contributions paid in 1912–13; complete particulars of the schools opened in the latter year are not yet available.

The papers may be recorded. The draft below is for approval.
