(7) G.O. No. 519 dated 11th July 1911.

Clause (a)

Please see G.O. No. 224, Educational, dated 15th March 1913. This order explains concisely the necessity for the ^{sanctioned} increase ~~sanctioned for~~ staff of the Law College. The reasons are —

(1) Provision to meet the requirements of the increasing number of students, and

(2) improvement in the efficiency of the College by securing the services of men of distinction in the legal profession and in daily touch with it.

The latter could only be secured by permitting the professors and assistant professors to deliver their lectures at hours which would not interfere with their court work, an arrangement which would naturally necessitate the employment of a larger number, especially in view of the fact that they could not deliver more than a few hours lecture a day. The necessity for engaging as professors persons who are in touch with the practical side of the legal profession was urged on this Government by the Government of India—please see page 8 of G.O. No. 519, Educational, dated 31 July 1911.

It is submitted that the ~~additional~~ Additional Member may be referred to G.O. No. 224, Educational, dated 15th March 1913, which has been marked in the Editor's table. [A copy of the G.O. has been sent to the Press, in advance, to be printed for E.T.]

2. Clause (b) The correspondence ^(on the subject) is contained in the following G.Os.

- (H) (1) G.O. No. 722-23 dated 7th December 1910
- (I) (2) 519 Educational, dated 31st July 1911.
- (J) (3) 1099 ⁽¹¹⁶⁰⁾ Educational, dated 10th December

(4) G.O. No. 224, Educational, dated 15th March 1913.

Item (1) contains a letter to the Government of India, item (2), which has been treated as confidential, contains India's reply to the above, item (3) contains letter to India soliciting permission to issue the draft order sanctioning the reorganisation and item (4) ^{Contains} India's sanction. It does not seem desirable to publish the correspondence with 'India' without their permission. The last of the orders which embodies the final decision of Government may ~~perhaps~~ perhaps be sufficient for purposes of publication.

3. The following statement gives the number of students in the several classes of the Law College during the last ten years.
