The Hon'ble Mr. M. Ramachandra Rao Pantulu.
the Training College, Rajahmundry was amalgamated with the Teachers' College, Saidapet are explained in the D.P.'s letter No. 5123 A, dated 29th August 1910.

54. Will the Government be pleased to state the circumstances that led to

(1) that the comparatively great the abolition of the L.T. section of the Training College at Rajahmundry.

(2) In view of expansion of the work of the Department of Education, will the Government be pleased to consider the advisability of re-opening the L.T. section of the above college.

the anomaly that has been noticed by the University Inspection Committee, viz., the supervision of the Training College at the former station by the Principal of the Arts College.

Paragraph 58 of the last Quinquennial report
also gives the reasons for the amalgamation.
The Additional Member may perhaps be referred to the latter.

2. Clause (2).— The question of retaining the College department of the Training College at Rajahmundry has been pressed on Government ever since the scheme has been in contemplation.
In August 1910 the Government received a memorial from the President of a public meeting held at Rajahmundry urging the desirability of retaining the College at the place. The Government informed the memorialists that the interests of education

Clause (1).-The circumstances under which the Training College, Rajahmundry was amalgamated with the Teachers' College, Saidapet are explained in the D.P.I's letter R.O.C.No.5128 A, dated 29th August 1908. They are -

Para 3 (ii), page 2 of dt. 15.3.09 (K)

(i) that the comparatively greater popularity and efficiency of the Teachers' College at Saidapet and the facilities of railway communication between the northern districts and Madras, rendered the maintenance of a first grade training college for the circars no longer necessary, and

(ii) that the transfer of the collegiate class from Rajahmundry to Saidapet would remove the anomaly that has been noticed by the University Inspection Committee, Viz., the supervision of the Training College at the former station by the Principal of the Arts College.

(copy placed below)

Paragraph 58 of the last Quinquennial report also gives the reasons for the amalgamation. The Additional Member may perhaps be referred to the latter.

2. Clause (2).- The question of retaining the College department of the Training College at Rajahmundry has been pressed on Government ever since the scheme has been in contemplation. In August 1910 the Government received a memorial from the President of a public meeting held at Rajahmundry urging the desirability of retaining the College at the place. The Government informed the memorialists that the interests of education

G.O. No. 546 dt. 15.9.10 (P)

education in Northern Circars would not suffer by the transfer. Subsequent memorials received from Ganjam District Association and from Chairman, Public meeting, Guntur, were also disposed of with a similar reply.

Again at the meeting of the Legislative Council held on the 29th November 1910 the Hon'ble Mr. G. Raghava Rao Bantulu asked ~~for~~ a question on the subject and the reply given was that the decision to merge the two colleges as soon as the Saidapet College was re-organized, was arrived at after careful consideration and that Government saw no reason to alter their views on the subject.

3. The Teachers' College at Saidapet has now been thoroughly re-organized so as to provide for the training of a large number of graduate teachers and equipped so as to meet the requirements of the new University Regulations, at a considerable cost. It has yet to be demonstrated to Government whether the Saidapet College would not adequately meet the needs of the expansion of education ^(in the near future). It does not appear to be desirable ~~now~~ to reopen the question of re-establishing the Training College at Rajahmundry. Perhaps the Additional Member may be informed that the Government have only recently re-organized the Teachers' College, Saidapet, at a considerable cost adequately to meet the needs of education as at present ascertained and that until future expansion of education sufficiently justifies the course they are not prepared to re-open the

The first clause will do. As for clause (ii) I will substitute for ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~in brackets~~ following: -

The latter institution has just been re-organized at a considerable cost and as it present advised the Govt. do not think it ^{expedient} ~~advisable~~ to revive the training section at Rajahmundry.

The question answers actually settled are as follows. —

Question 53. (a) Will the Government be pleased to state the circumstances that led to the abolition of the L.T. section of the Training College at Rajahmundry? Training college, Rajahmundry

(b) In view of expansion of the work of the Department of Education will the Government be pleased to consider the advisability of re-opening the L.T. section of the above college?

Answer 53—

(a) The Honourable Member is referred to paragraph 58 of the last quinquennial report for an explanation of the circumstances which led to the amalgamation of the college department of the Training College, Rajahmundry, with the Teachers' College, Saidapet.

(b) The latter institution has just been re-organized at a considerable cost and as at present advised the Government do not think it expedient to revive the training section at Rajahmundry.
