Station, Bellary, Dated the 29th March 1913.

From (Name) G.F. Paddison Esquire I.C.S.,

(Designation) Collector.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Educational Department,

Su,

I have the honour to request that the Government will be pleased permanently to exempt M. Kare gowd, Accountant Collector's Office on Rs.20 and acting clerk, Kudligi Taluk office on Rs.25, from the General Educational Test prescribed for superior Government Service so that he may be eligible for permanent promotion to a clerk's place on Rs.25/-.

2. The applicant though an unpassed man is reported to be well conversant with all kinds of work in the Taluk office and he is spoken of as a very willing, capable, and good worker. I enclose herein an extract from the Rayadrug Divisional officer's letter D.Dis.325 dated 13-2-13 recommending the clerk for permanent exemption from examination rules. The clerk belongs to the Lingayat community which is ^{very} backward in this district and poorly represented in the Government service. I would therefore recommend his case for special consideration. I consider his exemption to be in the interests of the Public Service.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

K.K.R.30-3-13.

Extract from Rayadrug Divisional Officer's letter
D.Dis.325 dated 13th February 1913.

I beg leave to bring to your notice the case of the above named Karegowd who is the 19th Accountant in your office. Though an unpassed man, he is very well conversant with all kinds of work in the Taluk office and he is spoken of as a very willing and good worker. Three Tahsildars consider him to be efficient. He has a fair knowledge of English and drafts fairly well. The Tahsildar of Kudligi lately brought to my notice that owing to his transfer from his office, his staff was much weakened as Karegowd was considered to be the main stay of the Kudligi Taluk office as reported by my predecessor in his letter D.Dis.No.2145, dated 27-11-1912. I examined the state of the staff of Kudligi Taluk lately. It is still weak. Kudligi is an unhealthy Taluk and clerks are generally unwilling to go there. It is necessary therefore that the Kudligi Taluk office should be strengthened sufficiently as the work in that Taluk is heavy, much heavier than in Rayadrug Taluk. Kare Cowd though an unpassed man is capable and deserves to be advanced. I therefore recommend to your special consideration the desirability of confirming him on Rs.25/- and getting him exempted to hold posts not exceeding Rs.30/- and request you will be pleased to approve of the appointments made by me. The Lingayat community forms a considerable portion of the population of this district and it is very backward.
