Honoured Sir,

With reference to a recent notification in the Fort St. George Gazette stating that Bombay Matriculates are not eligible to posts in the Government Service carrying above Rs20/- per mensem after 31st July 1913 unless they are otherwise qualified, I beg to request that Your Honour will be so good as to state whether Secondary School Leaving Certificate Holders who have not got 40% in English and above the Presidency average in two of the 3 subjects under group 'C', who are already in Government Service and have passed one or two of the Special Tests, will be eligible for such posts if they pass the Bombay Matriculation after 31st July 1913. At present they are being considered as unpassed candidates in this district though they have passed the Special Tests.

2. If such certificates are not taken to fall within the scope of the term 'other qualifications' and Holders are forbidden the privilege of being appointed for posts above Rs20/- per mensem, if they pass the Bombay Matriculation after 31st July 1913, which they can do privately, I beg to submit to your Honour that candidates who went up for the Secondary School Leaving Certificate Public Examination in the years 1911 & 1912 and who are already in Government Service will be put to great difficulty inasmuch as they have to leave off their Official career for one long year, to join again in the School and take once again to studious habits which they have entirely lost for the past a year or two.

3. As some of my friends are of the class mentioned herein and want to know as to what they should do further, I request that early orders may be communicated to me on the subject.

I beg to remain,
Honoured Sir,

Your most Obedient servant,
B. Seshagiri Rao

C. No. 1155 From ~~the~~ D. Seshagiri Rao No. - dated 2. 4. 1913.

SUBJECT.

Bombay matriculates.

The petitioner's enquiry seems to be ~~that~~ whether candidates who hold school leaving certificates but are still ineligible for posts carrying a salary of more than Rs 20 owing to the insufficiency of marks in the subjects comprised in the Certificate, will not be eligible for posts above Rs 20 if they pass the Bombay matriculation examination ^{after 31st July 1913} in effect, his request is that unpassed candidates who are in Govt service should be eligible ~~too~~ for appointments carrying a salary of more than Rs 20 per mensem if they pass the Bombay matriculation after 31st July 1913. Submitted this request is not admissible as ~~persons cannot~~ ~~qualify themselves for such posts~~ ~~by passing~~ the Bombay matriculation examination is not to be a qualifying examination for superior service.

G.O. No. 95355 @ 30.8.12. A in this Presidency after 31st July 1913. The petitioners may be informed that the persons whom he refers to in the petition will not be eligible for promotion to posts carrying a salary of more than Rs 20 if they pass the Bombay matriculation examination after 31st July ¹⁹¹³ ~~1912~~. A draft order is placed below for approval.

Surely those who are not qualified now for posts of Rs 20 and above Rs 20 cannot become so qualified by passing the Bombay Matriculation after July 1913.
