Memorandum No. 253-1 (Confdl.), dated 1st February 1913.

ABSTRACT.—Informing the Director of Public Instruction of the additional allotments made on account of education in the budget estimates for 1913-14.

II

Letter—from the Hon'ble Sir A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., K.C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—the 15th April 1913.

No.—R.O. 2121.

With reference to Memorandum No. 253-1, Educational, dated 1st February 1913, I have the honour to request the sanction of Government to the utilization of the sum of Rs. 7,000 provided during the current year towards the payment of special grants to aided training schools for masters in this presidency for the purpose of increasing their furniture, apparatus and appliances. The amount will be distributed among the schools according to their requirements in consultation with the Inspectors of Schools, and the correspondents of the schools concerned will be authorized to draw the grants on bills countersigned by the Inspectors, subject to the conditions that the objects upon which the money is to be spent are approved by the Inspectors prior to actual expenditure of the amount and that the vouchers in support of the expenditure are submitted to them for check and scrutiny by the correspondents concerned.

Order—No. 419, Educational, dated 8th May 1913.

The Government are pleased to approve the proposals submitted by the Director of Public Instruction for the expenditure of Rs. 7,000 on the equipment of aided training schools for masters.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Reference concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Member* should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
