To

The Secretary to Government,
Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the following case for the consideration of the Government.

2. V. Appalanarasimham, a Clerk of my office, has applied for permission to appear for the Criminal Judicial test to qualify himself for the post of a Deputy Tahsildar and Sub Magistrate. He passed the Matriculation Examination of the Madras University in 1898 and completed all the Special Tests required for a Deputy Tahsildar's post except the criminal judicial test. He has in addition passed the translation Test, Lower Grade, in Uriya a test indispensable for service in upper grades in this District.

3. He now holds a permanent appointment on Rs. 50/. in my office and is acting as Record Keeper on Rs. 60/. He has put in nearly 13 year's service in the Revenue Department and gained an all round experience of Revenue work. He worked for 4 years as a Special Revenue Inspector under the Inam Deputy Collector and for 3 years as a Firka Revenue Inspector in a Government Taluk. As a Clerk he has worked in the Taluk and Divisional Offices and in the Huzur.

4. His work, both executive and clerical, was satisfactory throughout. His drafts and notes are lucid and disclose an intelligent and thorough grasp of all branches of Revenue work and his work in the Huzur Office has, during the last 3 years, been marked by zeal and energy. Unless he passes the criminal judicial Test, he will not be eligible for promotion to a Deputy Tahsildar's post. If the permission applied for is granted to him, he should in time prove an efficient Deputy Tahsildar.

5. I therefore recommend that the Government may be pleased to grant him permission to appear for the criminal judicial Test in 1913 and 1914.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For Collector.

The applicant wants permission to appear for the Criminal Judicial test as he is only a matriculate - vide note 2 to para 4 of the Special test Notification. The Collector supports the application on personal and not public grounds. It does not therefore seem to be a fit case for granting permission to appear for the test. Orders are requested as to whether Revenue will support the application. The Collector speaks very well of the applicants' work
