M A D R A S.

Sir,

S. Subbarayulu Chetti of Anantapur has applied for a clerks' post in my office. He states that he received Education up to the Matriculation standard in the Christian College, Madras, and has subsequently passed the High School Final Examination conducted under the authority of the Government of Burma and holds a certificate granted by the Director of Public Instruction, Burma, a copy of which is enclosed. The High School Final Examination of Burma does not find place in the list of Examinations given in Appendix I of the Public Service Notification printed on page 37 of the rules relating to Public Service Examinations in the Madras Presidency. The applicant is a non-brahmin passed candidate and there are few non-brahmin candidates in the district. I have the honour to request the orders of Government whether this certificate may be accepted as equivalent to the Secondary School leaving certificate of the Government of Madras, and the applicant considered eligible for entertainment in Superior Service.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For Collector.
